AS IN "IN HIS STEPS."

Sheldon Conducting Paper as He Thinks Would Christ.

FIRST OF HIS ISSUES TOMORROW.

The Topeka Capital For the Week Already Has a Circulation of 100,000 and Matrices Are to Be Sent Elsewhere. Staff Heard Sheldon Preach.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 12.—The Topeka Capital will come out tomorrow morning under the direction of the Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, the noted Topeka divine and author of "In His Steps," who will run it for six days as he believes Jesus would were he on earth now engaged in the newspaper business.

Rev. Mr. Sheldon took charge of the paper today.

Aside from contributions from distinguished writers in Kansas and elsewhere, Mr. Sheldon gets out the paper with the present staff. He received hundreds of applications from people all over the country, wanting to work on the paper. Nearly all of these tried to impress upon him that they know just what sort of news Jesus would print. A few of them, however, admitted that they want to work for the novelty of the thing, so that they can say that they were connected with the Christian daily under Sheldon's management. The most of the applicants were preachers.

The Capital said editorially this morning:

"On Tuesday morning our readers will be presented to the first of the six copies of The Capital to be issued by the Rev. Mr. Sheldon. The difference between the present style and character of the paper and that of the coming week will no doubt be quite radical and will be appreciated and enjoyed by our readers. We are all willing to learn, and if there are apparent improvements in methods, makeup and matter which Mr. Sheldon can demonstrate we will cheerfully adopt them so far as practicable for an ordinary every day daily to do."

"We believe Mr. Sheldon will discover before the week is over that making a daily paper every day is equal to a sermon every day. There will be days when the minds of those who make the paper do not work as well as other days. The experiment is a good one to try for a week or longer, and no man we have ever known illustrates in his daily walk the principles Mr. Sheldon will aim to put into the warp and woof of The Capital for the week better than he does."

Not a cent of the profits of The Daily Capital during his control, not even a cent of wages, is to go to him. The business manager of the paper said that if the profits were very large a portion might be offered to the preacher for his charities, but he was by no means certain that on this basis the offer would be accepted.

There will be 100,000 copies of The Capital printed here daily during the week. Matrices will be sent to New York, Chicago, Atlanta, Denver and San Francisco, from which papers will be printed and distributed throughout the contiguous states. An edition will also be printed in London. Letters with subscriptions are pouring in like an avalanche.

The Capital publishes no Monday

morning edition and for this reason the question of Sunday work will not come up at the beginning of Rev. Sheldon's newspaper week.

SHELDON'S PERSONALITY.

Seems to Have a Knack of Doing All Things Well People Believe In Him.

TOPEKA, March 12.—In the course of an interview, Rev. Mr. Sheldon remarked that he was not an editor or a novelist. Further along he said in part: "My duty is in my pulpit and parish. I was led into the experiment with The Capital by a desire to put my theories of reform to the test, but I shall attempt nothing of the kind after that is finished. I have had offers from several metropolitan papers to assume charge of their columns for limited periods, but have refused. I am making arrangements to go to Europe in the early summer and when I return shall devote myself absolutely to my church work and to my small charities."

Mr. Sheldon gives you the impression of a man distinctly ill at ease with his fame. He has a broad, high forehead, covered with a heavy growth of brown hair, frank brown eyes, a mouth more subtle than determined, and a slightly receding chin.

Distinctly a home man one would say, than to whom, as he declared, his parish is his first consideration.

Among the many evidences of his sincerity given by people here are these:

At every pronounced step in the increase of the sale of his book, "In His Steps," he has forced his publishers to reduce the price, thus reducing the author's gains.

The editor of The Capital was asked if Mr. Sheldon's control of the paper was to be absolute.

"Indeed it is," said he. "I have contracted simply to make the paper as devilish as possible before and after in order to afford Mr. Sheldon an effective contrast."

"He was for a month a voluntary reporter for The Capital winter before last," said the colonel, "and he did the best work in that line that we ever had. He is a born newspaper man."

"Mr. Sheldon once worked in a rolling mill," volunteered a bystander, "and the proprietor said when he quit that he was a born rolling mill man."

"I guess," said Colonel Hudson, "that he is born to anything he tries to do."

A significant fact of the situation here on the eve of the beginning of an experiment which has set two continents to marveling and has raised the circulation of a country daily to nearly 300,000, is the universal respect, amounting in many instances to veneration, in which the preacher-editor is regarded.

The woman at the bookstand tells you that he is a good man. The street car conductor tells you he is an honest man. The editor of the paper which will print Howe's lay sermons said that one thing first of all must be admitted, and that is that the Rev. Mr. Sheldon is sincere.

The people have no fear that his experiment will be in the least degree shocking or sacrilegious. They see no possibility of impiety in this wonderfully honest parson taking a newspaper and conducting it as he believes that Christ would conduct it. It is simply a man trying in splendid candor to work out Christ's teachings.

NOT AN EXPANSIONIST.

Rev. Mr. Sheldon Also Opposed to the War In the Philippines—Other Points of His Policy.

TOPEKA, March 12.—The Rev. Mr. Sheldon took some persons into his confidence, although he would make no public declaration of his plans in advance, for the running of The Capital. A forecast was about as follows:

Oppose the war against the Filipinos as one of injustice, aggression and unpatriotism.

Oppose annexation and the general policy of expansion.

Conduct a crusade against what are called the "joints" here, being drug-store saloons, or other similar resorts running against the law, and with the obvious connivance of the police.

Declare for the reform of the stage and the revival of Shakespearean drama, reform all stage advertising and criticisms of stage entertainments.

Insist upon editing the advertisements with as much freedom as he does the reading matter, reserving to himself the right to determine the amount of space each advertisement shall occupy, its position in the paper, and the date of its publication.

Discard all sporting news of the ruder kind, such as boxing and wrestling, but devote especial attention to real manly and womanly athletics.

Discard all divorce court news and everything of a scandalous character, as well as criminal news, which is generally published merely because it is news of crime and interesting from this fact.

In case a murder in Topeka, which would seem to require the paper's attention, print the barest possible account of the tragedy and devote ample space to a philosophical and moral analysis of the matter, designed to show how inevitable is the punishment that overtakes wrongdoing and how all terrible crimes are the outgrowth of what at first were minor sins.

Take no part in the discussion of old national issues and state politics.

Devote considerable editorial space to an exposition of this policy, showing how it follows the line of the teachings of Christ.

REJECTED MANY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Opposed to Exploiting Patent Medicines and Opera Houses—Objected to Others.

TOPEKA, March 12.—Mr. Sheldon will print during the week about 20 columns of advertisements daily, half of the space being set apart for Topeka advertisers. Contracts have been made for all the available space.

Mr. Sheldon has rejected more advertisements than he has accepted. All advertisements of patent medicines have been rejected. Mr. Sheldon's reason is that he knows nothing of the curative properties of the medicines advertised and therefore cannot ask people to buy them. For this reason and others he has refused advertisements of cures for the liquor habit. His theory is that drunkenness is a habit and not a disease. He says he has not the time to investigate it.

He has rejected opera house advertisements and turned down one advertisement of a real estate dealer because an opera house was scheduled in the list of properties offered for sale.

All advertisements of corsets have been rejected. Mr. Sheldon says he does not believe in corsets. He thinks they are injurious to health and will not, therefore, advertise them. He has also waived all drygoods merchants not to send out of undergarments for females. He says he won't print them.

He has barred advertisements of retail merchants in Kansas City, Mo. He says Kansas City is a rival of Topeka and he believes in patronizing home concerns.

Heard Rev. Mr. Sheldon Preach.

TOPEKA, March 12.—The members of the Capital staff, at the request of Rev. Sheldon, attended services Sunday at his church, the Central Congregational. Most of the newspaper correspondents who have arrived in the city to report the incidents in the week of Rev. Sheldon's experiment of newspaper-making also attended this service. General Hudson, editor-in-chief, will take a week off.

A Victim of Footpads.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 12.—John B. Stout, a respected citizen, as he was on his way home on Senate avenue, was robbed and shot by footpads. He died the next night. The police have failed to find any clue to his assailants.

Boer Prisoners Tried to Escape.

LONDON, March 12.—The Cape Town correspondent of The Standard, telegraphing Sunday, said: "It is reported that the Boer prisoners at Simonton were found boring a tunnel underneath the lines of the camp. The work had made considerable progress before discovery."

Double Murder and Lynching.

VALDOSTA, Ga., March 12.—Near Jennings, Fla., two white men of the name of Carver were killed by a negro, who was captured by the sheriff. A mob quickly gathered, took the murderer away from the officers and swung him up to a tree.

Addison C. Rand Dead.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Addison C. Rand, president of the Rand Drill company and treasurer of the Latin & Rand Powder company, is dead in this city, aged 59 years.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Western Pennsylvania Fair, continued cold today. Tomorrow fair and warmer; fresh north to east winds.

Ohio—Fair today. Tomorrow fair and warmer; fresh north to east winds.

West Virginia Fair today, preceded by snow in the mountain districts. Tomorrow fair and warmer; north to east winds.

BOERS TAKE MAFEEKING

Prisoner Taken by Roberts So Stated.

THE REPORT NOT CONFIRMED.

Gravest Anxiety Felt In London—A Dispatch From Lourenço Marques Said the Boers Declared the Capture of the Besieged Town Was Certain.

LONDON, March 12.—The Daily News has the following from Asvogel Kop, dated March 11:

"The march was continued today to this point. No Boers were seen on the way. The British are now only 25 miles from Bloemfontein. One of the Boer prisoners said the siege of Mafeking has been raised."

A correspondent of The Daily Mail, at Lourenço Marques, telegraphing Saturday, said:

"According to Boer reports, the fall of Mafeking is certain. There has been heavy fighting this week and the Boers have been shelling the town from all the outlying forts, which they have captured. Colonel Baden Powell cleared all the natives out of town, but the Boers drove them back. The Boers are preparing for a final assault, with the idea that the capture of Mafeking will raise the drooping spirits of the Burghers."

LONDON, March 12.—There is no confirmation of the rumors of the raising of the siege of Mafeking, concerning which the gravest anxiety continues to be felt.

The British reported casualties up to this date are as follows:

Killed, 2,418; wounded, 8,747; died of disease, 1,029; missing, 3,483; total, 15,677.

THE BOERS RESISTED IN STUBBORN FIGHT.

Driven From Their Center Position at Driefontein—Both Sides Suffered Severely.

DRIEFONTEIN, Orange Free State, March 12.—Broadwood's cavalry brigade, advancing on Bloemfontein, unexpectedly found the Boers in a strong position in the Driefontein kopjes. General Kelly-Kenny's division arriving, severe fighting ensued. The Boers resisted stubbornly, but were driven from their center position, leaving a number of dead and 40 prisoners. The British force is moving forward.

During the fighting, in which five regiments took part, with artillery, the Boers, though forced from their center position, hung tenaciously to the other kopjes, shelling the British freely with three guns and two Vickers-Maxims.

The British cavalry began to turn the Boer position, but night fell before the movement was completed. The Boers retired during the night.

A large number of Australians were engaged. The First Australian horse brigade, with the Scots Greys, advanced within 800 yards of the Boers under heavy fire.

The New South Wales mounted infantry joined in the pursuit of the Boers northward.

LONDON, March 12.—A dispatch to the war office from Lord Roberts, dated Driefontein, March 11, 7:45 a. m., contained the following:

"The enemy opposed us throughout yesterday's march, and from their intimate knowledge of the country gave us considerable trouble. Owing, however, to the admirable conduct of the troops the enemy were unable to prevent us reaching our destination. The brunt of the fighting fell on General Kelly-Kenny's divisions, two battalions of which, the Welsh and Essex, turned the Boers out of two strong positions at the point of the bayonet."

Another dispatch to the war office from Lord Roberts, dated Driefontein, March 11, 9:55 a. m., contained the following:

"I cannot get the precise number of casualties before I march, but will communicate it as soon as possible. The Boers suffered heavily, 102 of their dead being left on the ground. We captured about 20 prisoners."

"Among the killed are Captain Eustace, of the Buffs; Captain Lomax, of the Welsh regiment; and Mr. McCarrie, a retired Indian civilian attached to Kitchener's horse."

"Among the wounded are: "Buffs—Colonel Hickson, leg, severe; Lieutenant R. Hall. "Welsh regiment—Lieutenant Torkington, Pope, Wincobley. "Essex regiment—Captain Broadwood. "Field artillery—Lieutenant Devenish. "Medical corps—Major White, Lieutenant Berne. "Austrian artillery—Colonel Umphely, abdomen, dangerous."

PEACE PROPOSALS OF BOERS.

They Demand Independence and Amnesty For Colonial Rebels.

LONDON, March 12.—The Daily Mail has received the following dispatch from Pretoria, dated Saturday, March 10, and censored by the Boer government:

President Kruger and President Steyn have wired to Lord Salisbury peace proposals on condition that the independence of the two republics be restored and the rebel colonials amnestied.

Yesterday the foreign consuls were called into conference and were requested to invite the intervention of the powers they represented, in order to prevent further bloodshed.

Will They Destroy Johannesburg?

LONDON, March 12.—The Durban correspondent of The Daily News says: "On March 1 an order was issued from Pretoria to field cornets to make an immediate return of all the women and children in the Johannesburg district, with particulars as to whether each family would possess means of transport in case of sudden removal. The order created a sensation."

Kitchener After the Rebels.

CARNAVON, Cape Colony, March 12.—General Kitchener has arrived at Victoria West to organize various columns for the purpose of suppressing the rebellion, which is spreading in this district. Minor fighting has occurred in several directions.

THIRTEEN AMERICANS KILLED.

Severe Fighting at Several Places in Luzon.

MANILA, March 12.—Thousands of organized insurgents were reported resisting Colonel Houston's battalion of the Nineteenth regiment at Antique, Province of Panay, which is the only province which the Americans do not occupy.

The Americans lost seven killed. A battalion of the Forty-fourth from Iloilo reinforced Houston's command.

One hundred and fifty Tagalogs, armed with rifles, have surrendered to Capiz and have been transferred to Luzon.

Six Americans were killed in an ambush recently laid by the Filipinos at Aparri.

Postoffice Robbers Run Down.

ALTOONA, Pa., March 12.—A band of eight postoffice robbers were run to earth by Postoffice Inspectors Dickson and Gregory, after about a year's chase. Three are in jail here—George A. Loa, Edw. Kelley and John Fowler—while the others are confined in various Western Pennsylvania jails. Nine robberies are charged against them, among them Barnsboro, Spangler and Hastings, Cambria county; Natrona, Allegheny county, and California, Washington county.

Charges Against Councilmen.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., March 12.—The latest and greatest sensation in connection with the alleged councilmanic bribery deals occurred when High Constable William Taby appeared before Justice Francis M. Rowe and charged Councilmen E. O. Ewert, Thomas Holl, William Zimmerman and ex-Councilman O. J. Reed and William Reppard of bribetaking; thousands of dollars figuring in the alleged deals.

Rear Admiral McCormick Retired.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Rear Admiral A. H. McCormick, who was assigned to duty as second in command of the Asiatic squadron, under Admiral Remey, has been placed on the retired list on his own application. The officer found that his health would not stand the strain of active sea service of the character required in the Philippines.

To Die Dewey's Captains.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Captains of the American warships which took part in the battle of Manila bay are to be the guests of the Colonial club at a banquet next Thursday evening.

Captain Gelray Dead.

BOSTON, March 12.—Captain Joseph W. Gelray, U. S. A., retired, died, aged 73 years. His body will be taken to Arlington cemetery, Washington, for interment.

OLD RULE IN FORCE.

MOTORMEN WILL BE SUSPENDED

If Cars Chance to Meet Between Switches—News of East End and Vicinity.

"If two street cars meet between switches, one of the motormen will be suspended for three days," remarked Manager Louis W. Healy, of the Street Railway company Saturday afternoon. Some months ago this same rule was in force, but the motormen were so careful that Manager Healy decided to ignore it. This was done, but recently so many cars have met between switches that the rule has again been posted. Saturday afternoon the east bound local delayed traffic on the eastern part of the line. The west bound car was held in East End 12 minutes, and when it reached the Thompson pottery, it was met by an east bound car, and the west bound car was compelled to return to the power house switch before it could proceed on its trip.

A New Country Church.

Architect George Snowden has received the contract for making the plans of a Union chapel that is to be erected midway between Industry and Smith's Ferry. The church will be one story in height, have a seating capacity of 200, and will cost between $600 and $800. The church is to be erected during the spring. It will be named "Olive Grove Chapel."

Among the Sick.

Mrs. T. F. Anderson is ill at her home on Pennsylvania avenue, threatened with fever.

Mrs. George Snowden, of Ohio avenue, is able to be out after a severe attack of grip.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of Helena is ill with fever.

Their Grand Daughter Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Andrews, of Pennsylvania avenue, Saturday received word from their son, Mack Andrews, of the serious illness of his daughter Marcella, who is suffering with an attack of typhoid fever.

New Machine Arrives.

The new pressed brick machine for the East End brick company arrived at the lower freight station this morning. It will be placed in position at the plant within the next few days.

Bettridge In Charge.

During the absence of Fireman Terrence the East End fire station was in charge of George Bettridge of the central station.

Personal.

John Finley, of Hookstown, spent Saturday in East End visiting old friends. He was formerly in business in the suburb.

Clay Department Off.

The clay hands at the East End pottery did not work Saturday on account of a break in some of the machinery.

Filling In Washouts.

The washouts on River avenue, along the street car track are being filled in.

INCREASING CAPACITY.

CHANGE BEING MADE AT THE CHESTER MILL.

To be a Seven Mill Plant—Schools to Close Very Soon—News of Chester.

Manager Oliver Bergman, of the Chester Rolling Mill company, when seen in his office at the mill Saturday afternoon, gave out the following statement: "We intend to increase the capacity of the plant to seven mills. When the mill was originally planned it was the intention to have only six sets of rolls. Matters have changed lately, and during the week another mill will be ordered. We hope to do a larger business, and with this end in view we have had to make the change."

It Was Payday.

A large amount of money was distributed on the South Side Saturday. During the morning the mill company, and in the afternoon the laborers employed by Contractor McNally were given their February wages. All the store bills were paid during the evening.

Schools Will Close Soon.

It was officially announced in Chester Saturday that the Grant and Congo district schools would close their winter terms March 30. Many of the schools will be remodeled during the summer, or before the opening of the next term.

Ballasting the Road.

A gang of men working for the railroad company Saturday afternoon commenced to ballast the road east of the trestle over Cunningham's run. It will require about two weeks to ballast this part of the road.

Paid the Teachers.

Saturday afternoon Secretary Pugh, of the Grant district board of education, issued warrants for the payment of all the teachers. The warrants represented about $300.

To Settle an Estate.

Thomas R. Cunningham this morning left for Cumberland for the purpose of being appointed administrator of the estate of Elwood Barb, deceased. He will return this evening.

Monthly School Report.

Miss Blanche Dorman, of the Washington, Grant district school, has completed her report for the month of February. It shows an enrollment of 23 girls and 25 boys.

Injured His Nose.

George McLane, of Chester, while packing a car of ware in the lower freight yards Saturday afternoon accidentally fell from the car and injured his nose and forehead.

Delayed Traffic.

The motor on car No 7 on the Chester street railway broke yesterday afternoon, delaying traffic for over an hour.

Brick Work Started.

This morning Contractor Ed. Cook put 15 bricklayers at work on the new Chester pottery.

New Livery Barn.

Garrett Mercer has finished the work of erecting a large livery barn on First avenue.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

In "Jack and the Beanstalk," March 14.

"The Christian."

The local lodge of Elks have been exceedingly fortunate this year in booking for their annual benefit "The Christian," a dramatization of Hall Caine's famous novel, and it is safe to say that East Liverpool people will never have a chance to witness a better show. The Elks were compelled to pay the company the highest price ever given a show to appear here, but they were determined to give their patrons an attraction that is seldom seen outside the large cities. The company is headed by Miss Effie Ellsler and is the only road company playing "The Christian." It was formed especially to play week stands in the large cities between New York and San Francisco, and has been greeted with packed houses everywhere. It is said there is but little difference between the work of Miss Ellsler and Miss Allen in the leading role of Glory Quayle, while the company supporting Miss Ellsler is just as good, if not better, than the one supporting Miss Allen. The company will appear at the Grand Thursday evening, April 19.

COUNCIL

Will Probably Hold a Lengthy Session Tomorrow Evening and Dispose of Some Business.

Council will hold a regular meeting tomorrow evening and it is expected the council will now start to finish up all the business on their hands in order to leave a clean slate for the incoming council, as there is only one more session before the annual meeting, which takes place Tuesday evening, April 10. The monthly reports of the city officers will be read and the committee appointed to place a value on the Pennsylvania avenue farm lands will make a report. The new police rules will come up and it is expected some action will be taken in regard to the plumbing inspector. There are several ordinances to be placed on their third reading and the electric light franchise will be disposed of.

To Arrive by Automobile.

New York, March 12.—The French liner Aquitaine, which came into port from Havre, brought three Frenchmen who say they intend to make the attempt to go to the Klondike by automobile.

Dr. Darby Tells of the Good Work Done by the Society.

There was a great congregation present at the morning service. Dr. F. H. Darby, of Columbus, state superintendent of the Ohio Children's Home society, delivered a very interesting address, speaking of our duty to the little waifs of the nation, showing how quire a number of the great men of our land have been developed from among this class of little ones. Taking Moses as his starting point, the speaker demonstrated in this grandly historical character the points he was endeavoring to bring home to the minds and hearts and treasury of his hearers. He paid a glowing tribute to the Jewish race and character along the line of the superb manner in which that people care for ALL their little ones, and dwelt on the native shrewdness of the sister of Moses in securing for a nurse for the lad found in the bulrushes his own natural mother.

Doctor Darby spoke of the grand work accomplished by the society he represents, claiming it to be doing work in line with the homes where children are loved and cared for by loving fathers and mothers, and where bright and brainy boys are being made ready for positions of trust and honor in the nation.

The speaker is evidently not much in love with the poorhouse, the infirmary or even the average children's homes of the land. He would certainly have made an exception in favor of the Fairmount Children's Home, Alliance, had he, like the writer, accompanied our townsman, Hon. David Boyce, one of the trustees of the grand institution, on a tour of inspection, on more than one occasion, and have formed the intimate acquaintance of Superintendent Southworth; his noble wife, the matron; the teachers, assistants and general helpers; and last, but not least by any manner of means in point of interest, the happy little ones, well cared for from every standpoint, physical, mental, moral, educational and spiritual, he would certainly have been compelled to acknowledge that the little ones possessed advantages far superior to those in many, very many homes.

Will Weeden, of New York City, who some time since assisted Evangelist Schiverea in a series of meetings in the Fifth street rink, rendered two selections in superb voice, the latter selection replete with touching pathos and winning warm commendation from lovers of sacred song. Weeden's enunciation is all that can be desired, adding much to his power.

Rev. Boughton addressed a large audience very acceptably at the night service. Mr. Weeden delighted the congregation with a splendid rendition of "The Holy City."

IT WAS A CLOVEN FOOT

But It Failed to Crush Its Intended Victim.

YOUNG HODGSON WENT FREE

A Relative of Ecker, the Saloonist, Tried a Nice Little Plan of Revenge, but the Bottom Dropped Out and the Boy Was Discharged From Custody.

Rev. B. H. Hodgson, righteously indignant at Ecker, the saloonist, doing an illegal and unlawful business, right in front of city hall, in selling intoxicants to the minor son of the reverend gentleman, entered suit against the law breaker and had him partly punished for his unrighteous and illegal acts.

The relatives of the said saloonist determined to have revenge, and on Saturday last had young Hodgson arrested on the charge of loitering about and entering a saloon, in defiance of an ordinance on the city statutes. Young Hodgson, not knowing that he was exempt from arrest, had pleaded guilty before Squire Rose, when the father of the boy appeared on the scene and informed the magistrate that his son had been a witness for the state of Ohio in giving his testimony before the court at Lisbon, and was therefore not liable to arrest or punishment on the charge trumped up. "You desire to make a defense, then?" said Rose.

"Most certainly I do," responded the father.

"You'd better secure an attorney," suggested the magistrate.

"My attorney is out of the city," said the reverend gentleman.

"Then you had better hunt up the law in the case," said Rose.

"I can do that in the course of half an hour's time," replied Hodgson, and he started out for that purpose. The reverend gentleman states that, ere he returned, the magistrate had taken measures which assured him that his prisoner was not liable and had discharged the young man from custody.

The advocates of the rum demon in this city are getting desperate and are resorting to desperate measures. It is high time that the Clark bill, or some better measure, shall be given to the people, in order that the accursed saloons shall be driven from our city. It is a burning shame upon the fair fame of East Liverpool that such dens of iniquity as the Ecker saloon, and kindred illegal resorts, are permitted to carry on their nefarious and unholy traffic, destroying mere bits of boys, body and soul. The fathers and mothers of the city should rise en masse, irrespective of party or clique, and by legal measures, force the saloons from our city.

And right here we emphasize the assertion that the legislators who enacted the law which will permit a little child to enter a saloon and purchase intoxicants, when that little child carries a permit from parent or guardian, are legislators in the service of the devil—contemptible tools, bought and sold, like so many cattle or hogs, by the liquor traffic. Pass the battle cry and watchword along the lines. "The un-American saloon must go."

A STEP BROKE.

Mrs. Sears Shay, of College Street, Met With an Accident Saturday Afternoon.

Mrs. Sears Shay met with a painful accident Saturday afternoon at her home on College street. The lady had stepped out on some back steps that led down from the kitchen when the top step broke and she fell to the ground, a distance of several feet. A physician was called, and it was found that she was not injured beyond having a severely sprained leg, which will lay her up for several days.

AGONY!

Pain so acute as to amount to positive agony is a part of rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sciatica, gout and other diseases for which TONGALINE is the specific remedy.

Too often morphine is given to quiet this pain and to save the nervous system from wreck. But morphine would never cure the disease. External application of lotions and liniments are equally ineffective for permanent cure.

In TONGALINE we have an anodyne more helpful and far safer than morphine, combined with eliminating ingredients which cure the disease permanently.

STEEL MILL.

An Effort Is Being Made to Locate One on the Lloyd Tract on the South Side.

The plan to organize a company to purchase the Lloyd tract on the South Side has not been declared off by any means and the work is being continued by interested parties. At present an effort is being made to land a steel mill. The company in question is now capitalized at $3,000,000 and employs 1,200 men with a monthly pay roll of about $50,000. The parties who have the matter in charge will give out no information in regard to the company, but say their chances for landing the concern are very good.

APPLE ALLEY SEWER

CAUSES ANNOYANCE TO KOS-SUTH STREET RESIDENTS.

Their Cellars Have Been Flooded Three Times This Winter Because It Clogged.

The Apple alley sewer was clogged up Saturday and as a result the cellars under several houses on Kossuth street were filled with water. The engineer's force worked until 4 o'clock Sunday morning before they succeeded in getting the sewer open, and then it was necessary to dig it up a short distance south of Kossuth street. It is the intention to put in a manhole at this point. This is the third time the sewer has stopped this winter and the cellars have been flooded. The residents are getting tired of it and are talking of asking council to pay for the damage they have been caused, as they think the trouble is due to the fact that slip from the potteries is run in the sewer. Engineer George says he does not know what causes the trouble, but that it will be thoroughly investigated and remedied, if possible. The sewer is an eight-inch one and the residents say the trouble must be stopped or they will file a bill for damages with council the next time their cellars are flooded. They think they have stood the annoyance until patience has ceased to be a virtue in their case.

Youngstown puddlers are getting $6 a ton, the highest in years. It was $4 during the panic and few at that.

Judge Smith says the politics of Wellsville is in a deplorable condition. So are the streets and several other things.

One of the speakers at the Young Men's Republican club' Wellsville, said he wanted the alleys of that burg made fit for swine to travel on. Scarcely complimentary to his fellow citizens, was he?

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

The Anti-Saloon league has become a power in the political field, and astute politicians are wide awake in their knowledge of the fact.

PLAIN JUSTICE.

Justice demands that the claim of Whan and Grim against Mayor Bough and his bondsmen shall be declared untenable.

Justice, backed by the taxpayers of East Liverpool, demands that the claim of Whan and Grim against this municipality shall be declared untenable.

CAN THIS BE TRUE?

One of the members of the jury before which the Whan and Grim claim was heard the other day declares that one of the two members who voted in favor of Whan and Grim said, after the jury agreed to disagree:

"My mind was fully made up in this case before any of the testimony was adduced."

KILL THE CURSE.

Watch yourselves, fathers and mothers of East Liverpool. Kill the curse! We have reference to the cigarette, a feeder for the saloon. One bright boy, just budding into manhood, said to the writer: "Yes, sir, I'll try to quit smoking 'em; but it will be a tough job. I've tackled it and been licked; but I'll try it again. Don't blame me too much, sir; put part of the blame on the men in town. I've bought 'em on Sunday from one of our city officials."

IT MUST GO.

Name it! The un-American saloon. And the Clark bill is one of the entering wedges which shall split the giant tree of the Liquor league to the very center of its foul heart. Pass the Clark bill, and many townships and wards will bar out the saloon. Defeat the Clark bill, and from its grave shall grow a harvest which shall ring the death knell of the political life of many an ambitious politician. Forbearance has ceased to be a virtue. This foul blot on the fair fame of our great and grand Republic must be wiped out of existence. The un-American saloon must go. The handwriting is on the wall. The right will prevail.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The congressional fight promises to be a battle royal. Taylor and Baker are already working like Trojans, each with a strong following, while Mahoning county promises to place a candidate in the field. Tayler's record at Washington has been a fine one, and this has added much to his chances. Baker's life record is a splendid one and he is backed by an element whose name is hustle, and they are leaving no stone unturned in the struggle for the nomination of their favorite. Only a short time since it seemed that Tayler would have a walkover for the berth; but now his warmest admirers admit that there will be a hot struggle for the coveted plum between himself and Baker. Time will develop the power and strength of the Mahoning man, in case such an one enters the arena. We await developments.

WATCH THE JURY!

Watch the action of the new jury on the Whan and Grim claim tomorrow. There are vital issues at stake in this matter, and a blunder may cause serious trouble in the future. Rumor has it that the majority of the existing council will vote to pay the claim at once, in case any jury in the land will vote in favor of the claimants, arguing that once paid, the defense might not carry matters up to a higher tribunal. If they try that dodge, they will count on a false helper, as there are men interested who will stand no nonsense or foolishness. There are wheels within wheels. Watch the result. No trickery or cunning will be permitted in this case, outside of square legal processes. The present council has already run the city into a snug bill of indebtedness by failing to listen to the wise counsel of the city solicitor.

UNIFORM WAGE SCALE

The Committees Finished the Work Last Saturday.

THE SCALE WAS ADOPTED

Manufacturers and Operatives Are Very Well Pleased With the Result and the New List Goes Into Effect Shortly After May 1.

The uniform wage scale has been adopted, the manufacturers and Brotherhood committees having completed their labors in Pittsburg Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The scale will become effective in 60 potteries and effect 10,000 potters.

The question of the uniform scale was first broached at the joint meeting of the United States Potters' association and the Brotherhood committees when it was decided to return to the operatives the 12½ per cent they had been reduced on account of the Wilson tariff bill. President A. S. Hughes has used his best endeavors for a uniform scale for the last seven years and a half and is highly pleased with the result. He says it will be a good thing for the entire potting trade and the list is best for all parties concerned, manufacturers and operatives alike. He says it will take several days to get the list ready for the printers, as there is still plenty of work to be done to thoroughly finish the matter. The list is a mammoth affair and President Hughes states that it would take several hours to explain it to anyone.

Colonel John N. Taylor when seen stated that he was well pleased with the result and the list was most satisfactory to all parties concerned. He said both committees were liberal and it was a case of give and take or they would have never succeeded in reaching an agreement. He said he expected there would be some objection on the part of some of the workingmen, but they had no reason for it, as their committee was most honorable and at all times worked for the interests of the operatives. He said the list would be operative in every pottery in the country and did not mean a general advance in wages. Colonel Taylor further said that the best of feeling prevailed among the committees and he thought the list was a splendid thing for the potting trade, as it meant that all the factories would pay the same wages and it would have the effect of doing away with many of the petty differences that arise in the different potteries.

The new scale covers all departments of the pottery trade, and while it includes reductions and advances in various individual items the scale is practically the wages heretofore paid. When the workers started they took the wages paid in all the potteries and averaged them, making that a basis for their operations. The potters claim that it is impossible to intelligently mention any particular wage as the base price, as it varies widely over the 3,000 articles included in the scale.

It comprises about 3,000 items, the potters being paid by piece work. Heretofore each pottery has had a different rate for different kinds of ware, and as new designs were being introduced each year the tangle has been increased instead of lessened. The variance in rates caused considerable friction among the workmen and much annoyance to the manufacturers. About two years ago a move was made to have the wages of all the potteries made uniform and the workingmen and a committee of the manufacturers have been busy ever since trying to arrive at something satisfactory. The new scale accomplishes what has been aimed at for years. It will go into effect the first full pay after the first day of May.

WILL WAIVE A HEARING

The Grim Case Will Go to Common Pleas Court.

CANNOT BE SETTLED HERE

Solicitor McGarry Has Decided to Let the Plaintiffs Take Judgment Here and Will Fight the Case Out in the Court of Common Pleas—He Has Good Grounds.

The case of D. Arthur Grim against the city and Mayor Bough is set for a rehearing in the court of Squire Rose tomorrow afternoon, but there won't be any hearing. The jury members selected are G. H. Owen, George J. Phillips, W. L. Smith, Henry Joseph, H. A. McNicol and George Buxton.

Solicitor McGarry has decided to make no defense this time but to let the plaintiffs take judgment by default. In giving his reasons for the action the solicitor said: "The charge of the court to the last jury was such to my mind as to convince me that he and I didn't construe the law the same. Under the laws of the state of Ohio a justice of the peace can grant a new trial almost the same as the common pleas court and in event of a verdict against the law as the justice of the peace construes it a new trial might and could be granted, so that if a verdict was rendered against our version of the law and a new trial granted, then we would be right back where we started from. In case of a verdict either way neither party would be satisfied, and the case could not be determined here so it is just saving time and trouble by going immediately to the court of common pleas."

CENSUS ENUMERATORS.

It Will Take One For Every Ward and Candidates For the Job Will Be Plenty.

There will be a census enumerator in each precinct. Already several people have made application to District Enumerator Hostetter for the position and received application blanks. The enumerators are required to pass examinations and file a bond. An exceedingly heavy penalty is attached for giving out any information in regard to the census. It is expected the list will be given out pretty soon, as the census bureau is now nearly ready for the count. The job will pay at least $3 per day and enumerators must be residents of the district in which they take the census. Four schedules cover the enumerators' inquiries—schedules requiring information about population, vital statistics, manufactures and agriculture.

THAT ASSESSMENT.

The Board of Education Will Probably Be Asked to Thoroughly Investigate.

The Board of Education at their next meeting will probably be asked to investigate some of the statements made at the last meeting by Dr. Williams in regard to the piano assessment in one of the rooms at the Central building. An informant of the doctor is preparing to ask the board to investigate the matter and says that his statements can be proved and for that reason they court an investigation and do not propose to let the matter rest as it stands now with the statement that there has not been a case where a child has been sent home or where names have been placed on the blackboards. The people think the present investigation has not been complete enough or some cases might have been found.

A Persistent Poet.

Although R. K. Munkittrick has an enviable reputation as a humorist, yet he is not the quickest man in the world to see a joke when it is played on himself. Mr. Gibson, one of the editors of Puck and also a practical joker, arranged for a special jest to be administered to Mr. Munkittrick.

He had provided a trick telephone which emitted a shower of flour when anybody spoke into it.

When Mr. Munkittrick had arrived. It was suddenly discovered that the paper had gone to press and that his copy was too late. There was only one chance, Mr. Gibson said, and that was to telephone to the printer and tell him to stop the presses until his matter should be set up and inserted. He asked Mr. Munkittrick to go to the phone at once.

Then the staff sat and held their sides, waiting for the explosion. Finally Mr. Gibson rushed to the telephone and found his friend deluged in flour, but still persistently calling "Hello!" through the phone.

He led him back and carefully explained the joke.

When he finished, Munkittrick calmly remarked:

"Still, I think we ought to let the printer know about the copy; don't you?"—Saturday Evening Post.

Delivered a Caustic Address to His Congregation.

IT WAS SOMEWHAT SENSATIONAL

Spoke of What Constituted a Successful Church—Depended Largely Upon the Character of the Membership and the Church Officers—Illustrations.

Rev. Walter Mansell preached his farewell sermon at the Christian church last evening, taking as his subject: "What Constitutes a Successful Church."

He said his time here had been so short that he did not care to enter into any review. It seemed to have been all winter. If he left any message he wished it to be: "Be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of God," but he believed it would be better to speak a few words upon what constituted a successful church. The success of a church depended upon, first, the character of the members; second, the character of the officers. The purpose of the original church was to save men. The first requisite was that the membership should be thoroughly and soundly converted.

Just as no man built a steel structure of wood, nor used rotten logs as a foundation for a ten-story building, nor covered his house with paper, so the membership of a church should be consistently Christian. When he saw members indulging in the questionable things of the day that did not bear the stamp of the Christ life, it was apparent that they had never been thoroughly and soundly converted, though their names might be upon a dozen church rolls. They must be men of prayer, but prayer without work did not amount to much. One might pray all day for a child and leave the cistern open for it to fall into; might pray all week for crops, forgetting to sow the seed and starve to death. They must also be a paying membership. The cause of so little progress was so many dead heads. They must also have the Christ spirit. The trouble was so many wanted to be bosses or nothing. Christ bathed the disciples' feet. He taught that those who wished to be first must be willing to be last.

The character of the officers was equally important. They must be of good repute. Their secret life must be as clear as the noonday sun. They must love God's work. Men who do not lie, who do not cheat, who do not swear, and who do not visit back doors of saloons. They must be consecrated. A man who will bet a dollar that there will be no conversions during a revival is not a proper church officer.

In closing Mr. Mansell said: "I have never said that your board was opposed to me. Many of them are large hearted consecrated men. But some criticisms mixed with the expressions of sorrow have come to our ears since our resignation. It is said that we leave you because we were forced to a vote. When any one says that, we left because of that reason he either doesn't know what he is talking about or tells a falsehood. But we leave with kindly feeling for all. We will remember nothing but the sunshine and the smiles."

OUR ALPHA ADDITION,

Located south of Bank street extended, east of Bradshaw and north of Huston Addition, is taking with home-seekers. These are the cheapest lots in the city within same distance of the Diamond. They lie well and you can reach them by paved streets. It is wondered why we sell them on the terms. Some get the impression that they are inferior and we want to shove them off. Such is not the case. The lots are slightly sloping, but none to hurt; face to the south, and are really worth more money. We sell them on the terms because we are permanently engaged in the real estate business, and, owning this addition, choose to sell these lots in this way. Anyone can afford to buy one. The terms are

$5 DOWN AND $1 PER WEEK.

These country residence sites of 2 and 2½ acres, known as

RQSS' MEADOWS,

Is where you ought to build your country home. Roads to Lisbon, Wellsville, Cannon's Mill, Calcutta and East Liverpool cross there, making outlets to every direction. Some fine day call and we will drive you off if interested.

Within the past week we have deeded and sold five of these fourteen lots in the addition joining Oakland. The location and prices are doing the work. Lots 30x110. Price $225. Terms easy.

Our sales of real estate since January have amounted to more than $25,000. We have customers now for $50,000 worth. If you have any property to sell, place it with us.

BECKHAM IS GUARDED.

Nucleus of New Kentucky Militia Organized.

REPUBLICAN FORCE INCREASED.

Another Militia Company Arrived at Frankfort and More Expected—Men Under Arrest at Lexington Denied Complicity in Goebel Murder.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 12.—A move on the part of Governor Beckham's followers toward the formation of a state guard under his administration, was taken here, when City Clerk Ben Marshall circulated a paper and enlisted the requisite number of men who are to compose a new company. The guns for this company were provided by citizens here, most of them being either needle guns or Winchester.

A report gained currency that Governor Taylor had given his soldiers orders to arrest Governor Beckham and other officers of the Democratic state government. On account of this report the men enlisted by Captain Marshall were assembled at the city hall, armed and sworn in as special police for the purpose of protecting the Democratic officers who were quartered at the Capitol hotel.

A large number of citizens also volunteered and were assigned to various posts in the vicinity of the hotel to offer a resistance in case the talk of arrests was attempted. Governor Taylor's soldiers, who were on guard at the state house, were reinforced by the arrival of the Barboursville company of 71 men, all of whom are fully armed and equipped. The Pineville and London companies were expected.

Governor Beckham appointed Colonel David R. Murray, of Clover Point, assistant adjutant general, with the rank of colonel, and he was sworn in.

The official announcement was made that this appointment was only temporary. This was regarded as significant, it being understood that Colonel Murray accepted the appointment on account of the gravity of the present situation and with the understanding that he could resign when the conditions in the state became more quiet.

SOLDIERS AROUND JAIL.

Powers and Davis in Prison, at Lexington—Admit They Made Mistake in Disguising Themselves.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 12.—Impulsive action, under perhaps misguided impressions, came near precipitating bloodshed which would not have ended with the threatened riot at the depot when Secretary of State Powers and Captain Davis were arrested by the Lexington officials. Time was ripe, under misleading reports that mountain men were preparing to rescue the prisoners from jail, for desperate resistance on the part of the local officials, who are mostly Goebel men. Had an attempt been made to take the prisoners from jail the result is unpleasant to contemplate.

The adoption of such disguise by Davis and Powers in order to get out of Frankfort, they being dressed as soldiers, puts an ugly phase on the matter for the prisoners, in the opinion of some of their friends here, although they explain that they did so merely to get away from the local Goebel influences which they allege would work to their detriment in securing a fair trial.

Both tacitly admit now that in this they may have made mistakes, as strongly urge their innocence of any connection with the murder of Goebel and insist that they have no fear whatever as to the outcome.

Sheriff Bosworth, of this county, says he will give the men as speedy an examining trial as they desire, but he does not think it proper to have their trial for several days yet, on account of the excitement.

Sheriff Suter, who came here from Frankfort, stated that he did not know when the men would be taken back to Frankfort. It will not be, however, till the examining trial is over here, which will simply decide that the local court has no jurisdiction, and the prisoners will then be taken to Frankfort.

All is quiet here and the soldiers still guard the jail. The army is deserting, as all arms are in the hands of the local soldiery on duty at the jail.

Colonel Roger Williams, of the Second Kentucky regiment, was wired to return from Connersville, Ind., but he has not answered. Captain Longmire stated that in case Colonel Williams comes he will take no orders from him.

however, may be removed before that eventually occurs.

Reports from high sources in the Beckham ranks are to the effect that Governor Beckham may move the state capital here, but there is nothing more than rumor so far.

Powers and Davis were on a train Saturday night, leaving Frankfort, guarded by soldiers. At the depot here, officers got aboard, outnumbering the soldiers, and made the arrest. Powers was hurt, being hit on the head, possibly with a club.

Taylor Pardoned Arrested Men.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 12.—According to a statement made by Governor W. S. Taylor he has granted a pardon to each of the persons from whom warrants have been issued charging them with being accessories to the assassination of Governor Goebel, including Secretary of State Caleb Powers and ex-Secretary of State Charles Finley. In his statement, Governor Taylor recites the conditions under which he claims to have been elected, and charges the Democratic contestants for State offices with conspiracy to secure control of the government.

CURRENCY BILL WILL PASS.

Believed It Will Command Full Republican Vote in House—Forecast for the Week.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The week in the house promises to be rather dull. Today the contested election case of Wise vs. Young, from the Second Virginia district, which has been debated for two days, will be voted upon. Dr. Wise, the contestant, who is a Republican, was seated by a former congress on a contest and the indications are that he will be again seated.

Tomorrow the conference report upon the financial bill will be disposed of. There may be some lively debate upon the report, but it will command the full party strength on the Republican side and will be adopted. The remainder of the week will be devoted to appropriation bills, of which two have been reported to the house, the army and the District of Columbia bills.

THE RESIGNATION OF WHEELER.

Why the President Did Not Send It to War Department.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—It appears that General Wheeler did not tender his resignation last fall. It was dated Nov. 28, at a place called Paniqui, on the island of Luzon, and was not cabled, but came by the slow process of the mails. Moreover, it did not come directly to the war department, but went to the White House, where it has been reposing since its arrival in Washington. The war department officials have just learned of it.

The general's resignation was not accepted promptly by the president, out of consideration for the officer. Instead he was ordered to report to the war department at Washington. His resignation will be accepted here and the effect of this action will be to allow the officer his mileage and expenses to Washington.

QUAY RESOLUTION TO BE CONSIDERED

The Porto Rican Bill Also May Be Taken Up in Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The senate will continue to give attention to the Porto Rican bill and the Quay resolution this week, with a possibility that there may be a diversion in favor of the Hay-Panncote treaty and Senator Mason's Boer resolution.

Mr. Mason says it is his purpose to call up his resolution again and to get a vote upon it if possible. Senator Davis has expressed an intention to ask the senate to take up the treaty during the latter part of the week, but Senator Foraker, in charge of the Porto Rican bill, expresses confidence that Senator Davis will not bring the treaty forward at a time to embarrass the Porto Rican measure.

HURRYING TO A DEATHBED.

Rev. John McGinty Was Rushing East to Cheer a Dying Friend.

HAZLETON, Pa., March 12.—Rev. John McGinty, a Catholic priest of San Francisco, passed through here on a race across the continent to the bedside of a parishioner, who is critically ill at North Adams, Mass.

It is the desire of the aged and sick parishioner to see the priest before he died and Rev. McGinty was hurrying with all possible speed to North Adams, and expected to reach there in time to cheer the last moments of his friend.

Mrs. Herman De Vries Dead.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Mrs. Herman De Vries, wife of the opera singer, died in this city.

The wild white sheep is found nowhere in the world but in Alaska and few specimens for mounting whole have ever been obtained.

WARNING OF GEN. ROBERTS.

Informed the Boer Presidents He Would Not Stand Violation of Civilized Usages of War.

LONDON, March 12.—The war office received advices from Lord Roberts, dated Driefontein, Sunday, March 11, 9:15 a. m., containing the following:

"The following telegram has been addressed by me to their honors, the state presidents of the Orange Free State and the South African republic:

"Another instance having occurred of gross abuse of the white flag and of the signal of holding up hands in token of surrender, it is my duty to inform you that if such abuse occurs again I shall most reluctantly be compelled to order my troops to disregard the white flag entirely.

"The instance occurred on a kopje east of Driefontein farm, yesterday evening, and was witnessed by several of my own staff officers, as well as by myself, and resulted in the wounding of several of my officers and men.

"A large quantity of explosive bullets of three different kinds was found in Commandant Croje's laager, and this has been the case after every engagement with your honor's troops. Such breaches of the recognized usages of war and of the Geneva convention are a disgrace to any civilized power. A copy of this telegram has been sent to my government with the request that it may be communicated to all neutral powers."

PAYMASTER IN IRONS.

McNamara Caught Near Chicago and Taken to Altoona—Accused of Embezzlement.

PITTSBURG, March 12.—J. D. McNamara, late assistant paymaster in the Pennsylvania railroad shops at Altoona, was brought to Pittsburg in irons from Chicago, and was later taken to Altoona, where he is wanted for the alleged embezzlement of Pennsylvania railroad checks to the amount of $2,563.76.

McNamara was arrested on train No. 9, on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad, just as the train was pulling into Chicago. The arrest was made by Captain Bradley, of the Fort Wayne police department, assisted by one of his lieutenants. They had been advised of McNamara's departure from Altoona, and they had him located several hours before the train reached Chicago.

Captain Bradley and his lieutenant brought McNamara to this city on Fort Wayne train No. 6. At Union station the prisoner was turned over to John Emigh, of the police department of the Pennsylvania railroad, and Francis S. Gaither, of Philadelphia, manager of the Assurance Company of North America.

FUNERAL OF PHELPS.

Dr. Timothy Dwight Delivered the Address—Yale Men Acted as Pallbearers.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 12.—Funeral services for the late Edward J. Phelps, ex-minister to England, were held in Battel Chapel. Dr. Timothy Dwight delivered the funeral address. The college choir sang two hymns, "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me."

The plain black coffin was carried into the chapel on the shoulders of eight seniors, members of the Wolf's Head fraternity, of which Professor Phelps was an honorary member.

Among the honorary pallbearers were: President Arthur T. Hadley, of Yale; Professor William Graham Sumner and Dean Francis Wyland.

The body was taken to Burlington, Vt., where the interment in the family plot will be made tomorrow.

WHITAKER AND CULTON MOVED.

Taken From Frankfort to the Jail at Louisville.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 12.—Harlan Whittaker and W. H. Culton, who were confined in jail here charged with complicity in the assassination of Goebel, were removed from the jail and taken in a hack to Shelbyville, where they were placed on a train and sent to Louisville under a heavy guard. It is understood they will be kept in the Louisville jail till the April term of the circuit court, when they will be returned here for trial.

Suspected of Counterfeiting.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., March 12.—Mrs. George Rossacio is under arrest at Clarksburg for passing two-dollar silver notes raised to fives. It is believed she is the notorious Belle Freeland, who was arrested at the World's fair, at Chicago, for passing counterfeit money, and who a year later was sentenced to a term in the penitentiary in the state for the same offense.

J. B. ROWE'S BOSS UNION BREAD.

BE A GOOD BOY! GOODBY!

How oft in my dreams I go back to the day
When I stood at our old wooden gate
And started to school in full battle array,
Well armed with a primer and slate,
And as the latch fell I thought myself free
And gloried, I fear, on the sly,
Till I heard a kind voice that whispered to me:
"Be a good boy! Goodbye!"

"Be a good boy! Goodbye!" It seems
They have followed me all these years;
They have given a form to my youthful dreams
And scattered my foolish fears;
They have staid my feet on many a brink,
Unseen by a blinded eye,
For just in time I would pause and think:
"Be a good boy! Goodbye!"

Oh, brother of mine, in the battle of life,
Just starting or nearing its close,
This motto aloft, in the midst of the strife,
Will conquer wherever it goes!
Mistakes you will make, for each of us errs,
But, brother, just honestly try
To accomplish your best. In whatever occurs
"Be a good boy! Goodbye!"

—John L. Shroy in Saturday Evening Post.

A PARTIALLY OBEYED ORDER

The Reporter Returned, but the Mule Was a Total Loss.

Harmon W. Brown of Ohio, who held a responsible place on the staff of General Rawlins during the civil war, tells the following story of the general's treatment of an intrusive reporter:

"One day before Vicksburg the correspondent of a certain paper went to General Rawlins for news.

"The general pondered a moment and took me one side.

"Take this young man," he said, "up to the top of those trenches within a stone's throw of the enemy. Take him up there and lose him. I don't care what happens. Understand?"

"I said I did, and we started through the lines. Both of us were mounted. I pointed out a crest overlooking the enemy and told him he could get a good view from that point.

"Ain't you coming with me?" he asked.

"No," I replied. "I know all I want to know."

"So he started alone. As soon as the top of his hat and the tips of his mule's ears showed above the crest there came a volley of musketry ten yards wide that cut the air like a big knife blade. The crown of his hat was sliced off as with shears. He managed to drop to the ground in safety, but the persevering mule was literally filled with lead. After the firing ceased the correspondent crawled to the spot where I was.

"Did you learn what you wanted to know?" I asked.

"Eh?" gasped the correspondent, wiping his face and looking at his hands to see whether they were bloody. "What I wanted to know? Oh, yes, of course. The enemy are over that ridge all right."

"When we returned to headquarters, General Rawlins saw us and hailed me. I went inside his tent.

"I thought I told you to lose that confounded reporter somewhere," he said testily.

"I did the best I could, sir," I answered. "He came back, but I have the honor to report the mule a total loss."—Saturday Evening Post.

A Navajo Superstition.

No Navajo Indian will ever make a campfire of wood from a tree that was struck by lightning or that might have been. If such a fire is made by an irreverent white man, the Indians will retire to a distance, where they cannot feel the heat or smell the smoke, and they will go to sleep in their blankets, fireless and supperless, rather than eat of food prepared on that kind of a fire. The Navajo believes that if he comes within the influence of the flame he will absorb some of the essence of the lightning which will thereafter be attracted to him and sooner or later will kill him. Up in the mountains more than half the great pines are scarred by lightning, but no wood from them is used. Almost any old Navajo can narrate instances where the neglect of this precaution has resulted disastrously, for men are sometimes killed by lightning in a region where thunder storms are frequent, and it is but a step from the effect to the cause.

What Joseph Was.

The Sunday school teacher had been telling the class about Joseph, particularly with reference to his coat of many colors and now his father rewarded him for being a good boy. For Joseph, she said, told his father when ever he caught any of his brothers in the act of doing wrong.

"Can any little boy or girl tell me what Joseph was?" the teacher asked, hoping that some of them had caught the idea that he was Jacob's favorite.

"I know," one of the little girls said, holding up her hand.
"What was he?"
"A tattletale!" was the reply.—Baltimore News.

THE SAMPLE FIEND

It Takes Lots of Material to Supply the Sampler's Demands.

Coming suddenly upon a salesman in a retail store who had a number of yard long lengths of new piques liberally sprinkled with those little price tags (the pins all stuck through the several thicknesses and bent down, one understood all at once the full import of the demands of the sample fiend. Marked off evenly like a checkerboard, with 17 price tags lengthwise and seven to the width, which made 119 to the yard, the salesman was going over the lot with a pencil, setting down the width and price on each.

At one store the one who is at the head of each stock attends to the preparing of the samples of his particular stock. Thus the pique samples would be cut by one, samples of swiss by another, of organdie by another, and so on. In the silk department one man, who is kept for the purpose, does it all. And it takes all his time.

For people from a distance who do their buying by mail this is of course a very good method. But the part to which all sane people take exception is the senseless sampling of those who wander aimlessly about, evidently gathering samples as a thoughtless child sometimes pulls twigs in passing bushes. The worst of it is we have to pay for this senseless woman's foolishness, it being often observable that the biggest samplers are the smallest buyers. One clerk says that he has actually seen thrown upon the sidewalk the samples given to a woman after showing her his whole stock, her purchase being ostensibly postponed because of her fear that the goods will not match something or other.

The time is past when these scraps went to feed the insatiate crazy quilt fiends.—Philadelphia Record.

His Resentment.

A Memphis young lady who is very fond of her sister's little child, a boy of 2 or 3 years, who is visiting her now, was trying yesterday to get him to let her "fix him up" to have his photograph taken. She got her curling tongs and was trying to coax him to let her curl his hair. But with true boyish disgust at the idea of having his hair treated like a girl's he refused to submit to the process. She insisted, however, and offered him every kind of bribe, but in every instance he refused to allow her to do what she wished, and finally, becoming tired of her attempt to get him to submit, he sat down, crossed his legs and looked up at her very seriously and said:

"Auntie, I tell you what I'll do. I won't take a dollar to let you curl my hair, but I'll give you a dollar if you just go away and let my hair alone."—Memphis Scimitar.

Wounded In Battle.

An army loses far more of its strength through its wounded than through its killed. In the first place there are four or five wounded to one killed, and in the second place the dead men give no trouble, while the wounded require an immense number of noncombatants to attend to them. A great many of the wounded return again to duty, their wounds being comparatively slight, but as a rule more than half of them take no more part in the war.—London Answers.

A Cat's Long Jump.

How far can a cat jump without hurting itself was partly exemplified in Brooklyn the other night. A pretty white cat ran up a tree to get away from a dog and at last crawled out on a small branch at least 60 feet above the ground. The branch was not much more than a twig, and the cat could not turn around. She sat up there in the swaying limb and meowed. At last the twig broke, and down came the cat. She alighted on the ground on her feet, looked around for a moment and then bounded away; which shows that a 60 foot drop does not hurt a Brooklyn cat, whatever it might do to cats of other places.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

UNION LABELS

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours and union labor employed.

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the R. C. N. P. A. can save a little each time when making their purchases.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold. The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeries. Following is the Confectioners' and Cracker Label:

CIGARETTES AND RICE

Main Foods of the Filipinos Says an Interesting East Liverpool Letter.

Edward Fowler, 267 Third street, has received a most interesting letter from Fred Martin, Co. K, 47th regiment, stationed at Sorsogon, coast of Luzon, Philippines, dated Feb. 2. Martin says despite the intense heat he hasn't been sick a day. Sorsogon is in the south, about 300 miles from Manila. The 47th was the first American regiment to land there and it took the town without any resistance. About 700 Filipinos retreated to the mountains with four cannon but two of the 47th companies went out skirmishing and captured all. The transports were escorted by the Nashville and Helena. The transports could not get within five miles of the shore, the bay being shallow. The capture of Sorsogon marked the complete control of Southern Luzon by the Americans. The Sixth artillery is with the regiment. The town itself, built of bamboo, with coconut branches for roofing, struck Martin as funny. He says: "I thought there were no inhabitants until the band began to play and then they seemed to come up out of the ground. The people are very small and live mostly on cigarettes and rice. All are very friendly to the soldiers."

Other letters received from the same party contained a Ceylon penny and a very handsome belt.

Shingleton is Well.

John Shingleton, a member of Co. A, 12th infantry, says he is now located at Gerona, P. I., and is on Major Adams' staff. The letter was received by his brother-in-law, Harry Merchant, and he sent a Japanese coin and some beads. He reports that he and his father, Isaac Shingleton, are both well.

* SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE.

Only Two Loads.

"At the close of the war," said a southern representative today, "a great many negroes in the south refused to leave their old homes. My father gathered his former slaves about him and told them they were free and must leave him. Some went and others remained. Among the latter was an old darky named Eph, who swore he would not leave, but would stay and take his chances. 'All right, Eph,' said my father. 'Just take four or five acres and go in on the three and four plan.'"

"An what am dat, massa, fo' de Lawd's sake?" "Why, if you raise three loads of corn you must give me one and you keep two." So Uncle Eph went to work and raised a crop. At harvest time my father rode over the farm and noticed that Eph had cut his corn. Seeing the old fellow, he rode up and asked him why he didn't do as he had agreed about dividing the corn.

"Well, massa, yoh said if I raised free loads of corn I wuz to gib yoh one an take two loads myself, an I done only raised two loads."--Washington Times.

Jerrold's Wit.

The English have been accused for so long of dullness in their humor that several stories related of the eminent wit Douglas Jerrold may not be out of place as showing that the charge is sometimes untrue. It appears that at a dinner one gentleman who had been eating a dish of sheep's head with great gusto exclaimed as he laid down his knife and fork, "Sheep's head forever, say I!" "There's egotism," said Jerrold.

Sometimes, through a joke, Jerrold conveyed good advice or a word of warning. He was enjoying a drive one day with a jovial spendthrift behind a pair of grays. "Well, what do you think of my grays?" asked his impecunious friend. "To tell you the truth," replied Jerrold, "I was thinking more of your duns."

The Price of Admission.

Mrs. Smyth (looking up from her paper) What does it mean in the Washington news when it speaks of "the lower house?"

Mr. Smyth--That means the house of representatives. The senate is higher.

Mrs. Smyth--How is it higher? Do you mean that it costs more to get there?--Philadelphia Record.

Wanted to Sit in Her Own Lap.

"The little 3-year-old daughter of one of the leading ministers in Little Rock resents too great familiarity. One evening, though she seemed a little unwilling, a young man, who was calling, took her upon his lap, whereupon she said, with great gravity:

"I want to sit in my own lap." It is needless to add that the young man immediately put her down.

Alert to Prevent It.

"The great danger," said the grave citizen, "is that we will drift into a paternal form of government."

"Yes," answered Mr. Meekton, with a sigh. "Henriette seems worried about that every time I speak to the children."--Washington Star.

AS IN "IN HIS STEPS."

Sheldon Conducting Paper as He Thinks Would Christ.

FIRST OF HIS ISSUES TOMORROW.

The Topeka Capital For the Week Already Has a Circulation of 100,000 and Matrices Are to Be Sent Elsewhere. Staff Heard Sheldon Preach.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 12.—The Topeka Capital will come out tomorrow morning under the direction of the Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, the noted Topeka divine and author of "In His Steps," who will run it for six days as he believes Jesus would were he on earth now engaged in the newspaper business.

Rev. Mr. Sheldon took charge of the paper today.

Aside from contributions from distinguished writers in Kansas and elsewhere, Mr. Sheldon gets out the paper with the present staff. He received hundreds of applications from people all over the country, wanting to work on the paper. Nearly all of these tried to impress upon him that they know just what sort of news Jesus would print. A few of them, however, admitted that they want to work for the novelty of the thing, so that they can say that they were connected with the Christian daily under Sheldon's management. The most of the applicants were preachers.

The Capital said editorially this morning:

"On Tuesday morning our readers will be presented to the first of the six copies of The Capital to be issued by the Rev. Mr. Sheldon. The difference between the present style and character of the paper and that of the coming week will no doubt be quite radical and will be appreciated and enjoyed by our readers. We are all willing to learn, and if there are apparent improvements in methods, makeup and matter which Mr. Sheldon can demonstrate we will cheerfully adopt them so far as practicable for an ordinary every day daily to do.

"We believe Mr. Sheldon will discover before the week is over that making a daily paper every day is equal to a sermon every day. There will be days when the minds of those who make the paper do not work as well as other days. The experiment is a good one to try for a week or longer, and no man we have ever known illustrates in his daily walk the principles Mr. Sheldon will aim to put into the warp and woof of The Capital for the week better than he does."

Not a cent of the profits of The Daily Capital during his control, not even a cent of wages, is to go to him. The business manager of the paper said that if the profits were very large a portion might be offered to the preacher for his charities, but he was by no means certain that on this basis the offer would be accepted.

There will be 100,000 copies of The Capital printed here daily during the week. Matrices will be sent to New York, Chicago, Atlanta, Denver and San Francisco, from which papers will be printed and distributed throughout the contiguous states. An edition will also be printed in London. Letters with subscriptions are pouring in like an avalanche.

The Capital publishes no Monday

morning edition and for this reason the question of Sunday work will not come up at the beginning of Rev. Sheldon's newspaper week.

SHELDON'S PERSONALITY.

Seems to Have a Knack of Doing All Things Well People Believe In Him.

TOPEKA, March 12.—In the course of an interview, Rev. Mr. Sheldon remarked that he was not an editor or a novelist. Further along he said in part: "My duty is in my pulpit and parish. I was led into the experiment with The Capital by a desire to put my theories of reform to the test, but I shall attempt nothing of the kind after that is finished. I have had offers from several metropolitan papers to assume charge of their columns for limited periods, but have refused. I am making arrangements to go to Europe in the early summer and when I return shall devote myself absolutely to my church work and to my small charities."

Mr. Sheldon gives you the impression of a man distinctly ill at ease with his fame. He has a broad, high forehead, covered with a heavy growth of brown hair, frank brown eyes, a mouth more resolute than determined, and a slightly receding chin.

Distinctly a home man one would say, and to whom, as he declared, his parish is his first consideration.

Among the many evidences of his sincerity given by people here are these: At every pronounced step in the increase of the sale of his book, "In His Steps," he has forced his publishers to reduce the price, thus reducing the author's gains.

The editor of The Capital was asked if Mr. Sheldon's control of the paper was to be absolute.

"Indeed it is," said he. "I have contracted simply to make the paper as devilish as possible before and after in order to afford Mr. Sheldon an effective contrast."

"He was for a month a voluntary reporter for The Capital winter before last," said the colonel, "and he did the best work in that line that we ever had. He is a born newspaper man."

"Mr. Sheldon once worked in a rolling mill," volunteered a bystander, "and the proprietor said when he quit that he was a born rolling mill man."

"I guess," said Colonel Hudson, "that he is born to anything he tries to do."

A significant fact of the situation here on the eve of the beginning of an experiment which has set two continents to marveling and has raised the circulation of a country daily to nearly 300,000, is the universal respect, amounting in many instances to veneration, in which the preacher-editor is regarded.

The woman at the bookstand tells you that he is a good man. The street car conductor tells you he is an honest man. The editor of the paper which will print Howe's lay sermons said that one thing first of all must be admitted, and that is that the Rev. Mr. Sheldon is sincere.

The people have no fear that his experiment will be in the least degree shocking or sacrilegious. They see no possibility of impiety in this wonderfully honest parson taking a newspaper and conducting it as he believes that Christ would conduct it. It is simply a man trying in splendid candor to work out Christ's teachings.

NOT AN EXPANSIONIST.

Rev. Mr. Sheldon Also Opposed to the War in the Philippines—Other Points of His Policy.

TOPEKA, March 12.—The Rev. Mr. Sheldon took some persons into his confidence, although he would make no public declaration of his plans in advance, for the running of The Capital. A forecast was about as follows:

Oppose the war against the Filipinos as one of injustice, aggression and unpatriotism.

Oppose annexation and the general policy of expansion.

Conduct a crusade against what are called the "joints" here, being drug-store saloons, or other similar resorts running against the law, and with the obvious connivance of the police.

Declare for the reform of the stage and the revival of Shakespearean drama, reform all stage advertising and criticisms of stage entertainments.

Insist upon editing the advertisements with as much freedom as he does the reading matter, reserving to himself the right to determine the amount of space each advertisement shall occupy, its position in the paper, and the date of its publication.

Discard all sporting news of the ruder

kind, such as boxing and wrestling, but devote special attention to real manly and womanly athletics.

Discard all divorce court news and everything of a scandalous character, as well as criminal news, which is generally published merely because it is news of crime and interesting from this fact.

In case a murder in Topeka, which would seem to require the paper's attention, print the barest possible account of the tragedy and devote ample space to a philosophical and moral analysis of the matter, designed to show how inevitable is the punishment that overtakes wrongdoing and how all terrible crimes are the outgrowth of what at first were minor sins.

Take no part in the discussion of old national issues and state politics.

Devote considerable editorial space to an exposition of this policy, showing how it follows the line of the teachings of Christ.

REJECTED MANY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Opposed to Exploiting Patent Medicines and Opera Houses—Objected to Others.

TOPEKA, March 12.—Mr. Sheldon will print during the week about 20 columns of advertisements daily, half of the space being set apart for Topeka advertisers. Contracts have been made for all the available space.

Mr. Sheldon has rejected more advertisements than he has accepted. All advertisements of patent medicines have been rejected. Mr. Sheldon's reason is that he knows nothing of the curative properties of the medicines advertised and therefore cannot ask people to buy them. For this reason and others he has refused advertisements of cures for the liquor habit. His theory is that drunkenness is a habit and not a disease. He says he has not the time to investigate it.

He has rejected opera house advertisements and turned down one advertisement of a real estate dealer because an opera house was scheduled in the list of properties offered for sale.

All advertisements of corsets have been rejected. Mr. Sheldon says he does not believe in corsets. He thinks they are injurious to health and will not, therefore, advertise them. He has also warned all drygoods merchants not to send out of undergarments for females. He says he won't print them.

He has barred advertisements of retail merchants in Kansas City, Mo. He says Kansas City is a rival of Topeka and he believes in patronizing home concerns.

Heard Rev. Mr. Sheldon Preach.

TOPEKA, March 12.—The members of the Capital staff, at the request of Rev. Sheldon, attended services Sunday at his church, the Central Congregational. Most of the newspaper correspondents who have arrived in the city to report the incidents in the week of Rev. Sheldon's experiment of newspaper-making also attended this service. General Hudson, editor-in-chief, will take a week off.

A Victim of Footpads.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 12.—John B. Stout, a respected citizen, as he was on his way home on Senate avenue, was robbed and shot by footpads. He died the next night. The police have failed to find any clue to his assailants.

Boer Prisoners Tried to Escape.

LONDON, March 12.—The Cape Town correspondent of The Standard, telegraphing Sunday, said: "It is reported that the Boer prisoners at Simonton were found boring a tunnel underneath the lines of the camp. The work had made considerable progress before discovery."

Double Murder and Lynching.

VALDOSTA, Ga., March 12.—Near Jennings, Fla., two white men of the name of Carver were killed by a negro, who was captured by the sheriff. A mob quickly gathered, took the murderer away from the officers and swung him up to a tree.

Addison C. Rand Dead.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Addison C. Rand, president of the Rand Drill company and treasurer of the Lafin & Rand Powder company, is dead in this city, aged 59 years.

BOERS TAKE MAFEEKING

THE REPORT NOT CONFIRMED.

Gravest Anxiety Felt in London—A Dispatch From Lourenzo Marques Said the Boers Declared the Capture of the Sieged Town Was Certain.

LONDON, March 12.—The Daily News has the following from Asvogel Kop, dated March 11:

"The march was continued today to this point. No Boers were seen on the way. The British are now only 25 miles from Bloemfontein. One of the Boer prisoners said the siege of Mafeking has been raised."

A correspondent of The Daily Mail, at Lourenzo Marques, telegraphing Saturday, said:

"According to Boer reports, the fall of Mafeking is certain. There has been heavy fighting this week and the Boers have been shelling the town from all the outlying forts, which they have captured. Colonel Baden Powell cleared all the natives out of town, but the Boers drove them back. The Boers are preparing for a final assault, with the idea that the capture of Mafeking will raise the drooping spirits of the Burghers."

LONDON, March 12.—There is no confirmation of the rumors of the raising of the siege of Mafeking, concerning which the gravest anxiety continues to be felt.

The British reported casualties up to this date are as follows:

Killed, 2,418; wounded, 8,747; died of disease, 1,029; missing, 3,483; total, 15,677.

THE BOERS RESISTED IN STUBBORN FIGHT.

Driven From Their Center Position at Driefontein—Both Sides Suffered Severely.

DRIEFONTEIN, Orange Free State, March 12.—Broadwood's cavalry brigade, advancing on Bloemfontein, unexpectedly found the Boers in a strong position in the Driefontein kopjes. General Kelly-Kenny's division arriving, severe fighting ensued. The Boers resisted stubbornly, but were driven from their center position, leaving a number of dead and 49 prisoners. The British force is moving forward.

During the fighting, in which five regiments took part, with artillery, the Boers, though forced from their center position, clung tenaciously to the other kopjes, shelling the British freely with three guns and two Vickers-Maxims.

The British cavalry began to turn the Boer position, but night fell before the movement was completed. The Boers retired during the night.

A large number of Australians were engaged. The First Australian horse brigade, with the Scots Greys, advanced within 800 yards of the Boers under heavy fire.

The New South Wales mounted infantry joined in the pursuit of the Boers northward.

LONDON, March 12.—A dispatch to the war office from Lord Roberts, dated Driefontein, March 11, 7:45 a. m., contained the following:

"The enemy opposed us throughout yesterday's march, and from their intimate knowledge of the country gave us considerable trouble. Owing, however, to the admirable conduct of the troops the enemy were unable to prevent us reaching our destination. The brunt of the fighting fell on General Kelly-Kenny's divisions, two battalions of which, the Welsh and Essex, turned the Boers out of two strong positions at the point of the bayonet."

Another dispatch to the war office from Lord Roberts, dated Driefontein, March 11, 9:55 a. m., contained the following:

"I cannot get the precise number of casualties before I march, but will communicate it as soon as possible. The Boers suffered heavily, 102 of their dead being left on the ground. We captured about 20 prisoners."

"Among the killed are Captain Eastace, of the Buffs; Captain Lomax, of the Welsh regiment, and Mr. McCartie, a retired Indian civilian attached to Kitchener's horse."

"Among the wounded are: "Buns—Colonel Hickson, leg, severe; Lieutenant R. Hall. "Welsh regiment—Lieutenant Torkington, Pope, Wimmerley. "Essex regiment—Captain Broadwood. "Field artillery—Lieutenant Davenish. "Medical corps—Major White, Lieutenant Barne. "Austrian artillery—Colonel Umphely, abdomen, dangerous."

PEACE PROPOSALS OF BOERS.

They Demand Independence and Amnesty For Colonial Rebels.

LONDON, March 12.—The Daily Mail has received the following dispatch from Pretoria, dated Saturday, March 10, and censored by the Boer government:

President Kruger and President Steyn have wired to Lord Salisbury peace proposals on condition that the independence of the two republics be restored and the rebel colonials amnestied.

Yesterday the foreign consuls were called into conference and were requested to invite the intervention of the powers they represented, in order to prevent further bloodshed.

Will They Destroy Johannesburg?

LONDON, March 12.—The Durban correspondent of The Daily News says: "On March 1 an order was issued from Pretoria to field cornets to make an immediate return of all the women and children in the Johannesburg district, with particulars as to whether each family would possess means of transport in case of sudden removal. The order created a sensation."

Kitchener After the Rebels.

CARNAVON, Cape Colony, March 12.—General Kitchener has arrived at Victoria West to organize various columns for the purpose of suppressing the rebellion, which is spreading in this district. Minor fighting has occurred in several directions.

THIRTEEN AMERICANS KILLED.

Severe Fighting at Several Places in Luzon.

MANILA, March 12.—Thousands of organized insurgents were reported resisting Colonel Houston's battalion of the Nineteenth regiment at Antique, Province of Panay, which is the only province which the Americans do not occupy.

The Americans lost seven killed. A battalion of the Forty-fourth from Iloilo reinforced Houston's command.

One hundred and fifty Tagalogs, armed with rifles, have surrendered to Capiz and have been transferred to Luzon.

Postoffice Robbers Run Down.

ALTOONA, Pa., March 12.—A band of eight postoffice robbers were run to earth by Postoffice Inspectors Dickson and Gregory, after about a year's chase. Three are in jail here—George A. Loeb, Edw. Kelley and John Fowler—while the others are confined in various Western Pennsylvania jails. Nine robberies are charged against them, among them Barnsboro, Spangler and Hastings, Cambria county; Natrona, Allegheny county, and California, Washington county.

Charges Against Councilmen.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., March 12.—The latest and greatest sensation in connection with the alleged councilmanic bribery deals occurred when High Constable William Taby appeared before Justice Francis M. Rowe and charged Councilmen E. O. Euen, Thomas Holl, William Zimmerman and ex-Councilman O. J. Reed and William Reppard of bribery; thousands of dollars figuring in the alleged deals.

Rear Admiral McCormick Retired.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Rear Admiral A. H. McCormick, who was assigned to duty as second in command of the Asiatic squadron, under Admiral Remey, has been placed on the retired list on his own application. The officer found that his health would not stand the strain of active sea service of the character required in the Philippines.

To Dine Dewey's Captains.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Captains of the American warships which took part in the battle of Manila bay are to be the guests of the Colonial club at a banquet next Thursday evening.

Captain Gelray Dead.

BOSTON, March 12.—Captain Joseph W. Gelray, U. S. A., retired, died, aged 3 years. His body will be taken to Arlington cemetery, Washington, for interment.

OLD RULE IN FORCE.

MOTORMEN WILL BE SUS- PENDED

If Cars Chance to Meet Between Switches—News of East End and Vicinity.

"If two street cars meet between switches, one of the motormen will be suspended for three days," remarked Manager Louis W. Healy, of the Street Railway company Saturday afternoon. Some months ago this same rule was in force, but the motormen were so careful that Manager Healy decided to ignore it. This was done, but recently so many cars have met between switches that the rule has again been posted. Saturday afternoon the east bound local delayed traffic on the eastern part of the line. The west bound car was held in East End 12 minutes, and when it reached the Thompson pottery, it was met by an east bound car, and the west bound car was compelled to return to the power house switch before it could proceed on its trip.

A New Country Church.

Architect George Snowden has received the contract for making the plans of a Union chapel that is to be erected midway between Industry and Smith's Ferry. The church will be one story in height, have a seating capacity of 200, and will cost between $600 and $800. The church is to be erected during the spring. It will be named "Olive Grove Chapel."

Among the Sick.

Mrs. T. F. Anderson is ill at her home on Pennsylvania avenue, threatened with fever.

Mrs. George Snowden, of Ohio avenue, is able to be out after a severe attack of grip.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of Helana is ill with fever.

Their Grand Daughter Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Andrews, of Pennsylvania avenue, Saturday received word from their son, Mack Andrews, of the serious illness of his daughter Marcella, who is suffering with an attack of typhoid fever.

New Machine Arrives.

The new pressed brick machine for the East End brick company arrived at the lower freight station this morning. It will be placed in position at the plant within the next few days.

Bettridge In Charge.

During the absence of Fireman Terrence the East End fire station was in charge of George Bettridge of the central station.

Personal.

John Finley, of Hookstown, spent Saturday in East End visiting old friends. He was formerly in business in the suburb.

Clay Department Off.

The clay hands at the East End pottery did not work Saturday on account of a break in some of the machinery.

Filling In Washouts.

The washouts on River avenue, along the street car track are being filled in.

INCREASING CAPACITY.

CHANGE BEING MADE AT THE CHESTER MILL.

To be a Seven Mill Plant—Schools to Close Very Soon—News of Chester.

Manager Oliver Bergman, of the Chester Rolling Mill company, when seen in his office at the mill Saturday afternoon, gave out the following statement: "We intend to increase the capacity of the plant to seven mills. When the mill was originally planned it was the intention to have only six sets of rolls. Matters have changed lately, and during the week another mill will be ordered. We hope to do a larger business, and with this end in view we have had to make the change."

It Was Payday.

A large amount of money was distributed on the South Side Saturday. During the morning the mill company, and in the afternoon the laborers employed by Contractor McNally were given their February wages. All the store bills were paid during the evening.

Schools Will Close Soon.

It was officially announced in Chester Saturday that the Grant and Congo district schools would close their winter terms March 30. Many of the schools will be remodeled during the summer, or before the opening of the next term.

Ballasting the Road.

A gang of men working for the railroad company Saturday afternoon commenced to ballast the road east of the trestle over Cunningham's run. It will require about two weeks to ballast this part of the road.

Paid the Teachers.

Saturday afternoon Secretary Pugh, of the Grant district board of education, issued warrants for the payment of all the teachers. The warrants represented about $300.

To Settle an Estate.

Thomas R. Cunningham this morning left for Cumberland for the purpose of being appointed administrator of the estate of Elwood Bath, deceased. He will return this evening.

Monthly School Report.

Miss Blanche Dorman, of the Washington, Grant district school, has completed her report for the month of February. It shows an enrollment of 23 girls and 25 boys.

Injured His Nose.

George McLane, of Chester, while packing a car of ware in the lower freight yards Saturday afternoon accidentally fell from the car and injured his nose and forehead.

Delayed Traffic.

The motor on car No 7 on the Chester street railway broke yesterday afternoon, delaying traffic for over an hour.

Brick Work Started.

This morning Contractor Ed. Cook put 15 bricklayers at work on the new Chester pottery.

New Livery Barn.

Garrett Mercer has finished the work of erecting a large livery barn on First avenue.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

In "Jack and the Beanstalk," March 14.

"The Christian."

The local lodge of Elks have been exceedingly fortunate this year in booking for their annual benefit "The Christian," a dramatization of Hall Caine's famous novel, and it is safe to say that East Liverpool people will never have a chance to witness a better show. The Elks were compelled to pay the company the highest price ever given a show to appear here, but they were determined to give their patrons an attraction that is seldom seen outside the large cities. The company is headed by Miss Effie Ellsler and is the only road company playing "The Christian." It was formed especially to play week stands in the large cities between New York and San Francisco, and has been greeted with packed houses everywhere. It is said there is but little difference between the work of Miss Ellsler and Miss Allen in the leading role of Glory Quayle, while the company supporting Miss Ellsler is just as good, if not better, than the one supporting Miss Allen. The company will appear at the Grand Thursday evening, April 19.

COUNCIL

Will Probably Hold a Lengthy Session Tomorrow Evening and Dispose of Some Business.

Council will hold a regular meeting tomorrow evening and it is expected the council will now start to finish up all the business on their hands in order to leave a clean slate for the incoming council, as there is only one more session before the annual meeting, which takes place Tuesday evening, April 10. The monthly reports of the city officers will be read and the committee appointed to place a value on the Pennsylvania avenue farm lands will make a report. The new police rules will come up and it is expected some action will be taken in regard to the plumbing inspector. There are several ordinances to be placed on their third reading and the electric light franchise will be disposed of.

To Leave by Automobile.

New York, March 12.—The French liner Aquitaine, which came into port from Havre, brought three Frenchmen who say they intend to make the attempt to go to the Klondike by automobile.

Dr. Darby Tells of the Good Work Done by the So- ciety.

There was a great congregation present at the morning service Dr. F. H. Darby, of Columbus, state superintendent of the Ohio Children's Home society, delivered a very interesting address, speaking of our duty to the little waifs of the nation, showing how quire a number of the great men of our land have been developed from among this class of little ones. Taking Moses as his starting point, the speaker demonstrated in this grandly historical character the points he was endeavoring to bring home to the minds and hearts and treasury of his hearers. He paid a glowing tribute to the Jewish race and character along the line of the superb manner in which that people care for ALL their little ones, and dwelt on the native shrewdness of the sister of Moses in securing for a nurse for the lad found in the bulrushes his own natural mother.

Doctor Darby spoke of the grand work accomplished by the society he represents, claiming it to be doing work in line with the homes where children are loved and cared for by loving fathers and mothers, and where bright and brainy boys are being made ready for positions of trust and honor in the nation.

The speaker is evidently not much in love with the poorhouse, the infirmary or even the average children's homes of the land. He would certainly have made an exception in favor of the Fairmount Children's Home, Alliance, had he, like the writer, accompanied our townsman, Hon. David Boyce, one of the trustees of the grand institution, on a tour of inspection, on more than one occasion, and have formed the intimate acquaintance of Superintendent Southworth; his noble wife, the matron; the teachers, assistants and general helpers; and last, but not least by any manner of means in point of interest, the happy little ones, well cared for from every standpoint, physical, mental, moral, educational and spiritual, he would certainly have been compelled to acknowledge that the little ones possessed advantages far superior to those in many, very many homes.

Will Weeden, of New York City, who some time since assisted Evangelist Schiverea in a series of meetings in the Fifth street rink, rendered two selections in superb voice, the latter selection replete with touching pathos and winning warm commendation from lovers of sacred song. Weeden's enunciation is all that can be desired, adding much to his power.

Rev. Boughton addressed a large audience very acceptably at the night service. Mr. Weeden delighted the congregation with a splendid rendition of "The Holy City."

NOTICE F. M. C.

IT WAS A CLOVEN FOOT

YOUNG HODGSON WENT FREE

A Relative of Ecker, the Saloonist, Tried a Nice Little Plan of Revenge, but the Bottom Dropped Out and the Boy Was Discharged From Custody.

Rev. B. H. Hodgson, righteously indignant at Ecker, the saloonist, doing an illegal and unlawful business, right in front of city hall, in selling intoxicants to the minor son of the reverend gentleman, entered suit against the law breaker and had him partly punished for his unrighteous and illegal acts.

The relatives of the said saloonist determined to have revenge, and on Saturday last had young Hodgson arrested on the charge of loitering about and entering a saloon, in defiance of an ordinance on the city statutes. Young Hodgson, not knowing that he was exempt from arrest, had pleaded guilty before Squire Rose, when the father of the boy appeared on the scene and informed the magistrate that his son had been a witness for the state of Ohio in giving his testimony before the court at Lisbon, and was therefore not liable to arrest or punishment on the charge trumped up.

"You desire to make a defense, then?" said Rose.

"Most certainly I do," responded the father.

"You'd better secure an attorney," suggested the magistrate.

"My attorney is out of the city," said the reverend gentleman.

"Then you had better hunt up the law in the case," said Rose.

"I can do that in the course of half an hour's time," replied Hodgson, and he started out for that purpose. The reverend gentleman states that, ere he returned, the magistrate had taken measures which assured him that his prisoner was not liable and had discharged the young man from custody.

The advocates of the rum demon in this city are getting desperate and are resorting to desperate measures. It is high time that the Clark bill, or some better measure, shall be given to the people, in order that the accursed saloons shall be driven from our city. It is a burning shame upon the fair fame of East Liverpool that such dens of iniquity as the Ecker saloon, and kindred illegal resorts, are permitted to carry on their nefarious and unholy traffic, destroying mere bits of boys, body and soul. The fathers and mothers of the city should rise en masse, irrespective of party or clique, and by legal measures, force the saloons from our city.

And right here we emphasize the assertion that the legislators who enacted the law which will permit a little child to enter a saloon and purchase intoxicants, when that little child carries a permit from parent or guardian, are legislators in the service of the devil—contemptible tools, bought and sold, like so many cattle or hogs, by the liquor traffic. Pass the battle cry and watchword along the lines. "The un-American saloon must go."

A STEP BROKE.

Mrs. Sears Shay, of College Street, Met With an Accident Saturday Afternoon.

Mrs. Sears Shay met with a painful accident Saturday afternoon at her home on College street. The lady had stepped out on some back steps that led down from the kitchen when the top step broke and she fell to the ground, a distance of several feet. A physician was called, and it was found that she was not injured beyond having a severely sprained leg, which will lay her up for several days.

AGONY!

Pain so acute as to amount to positive agony is a part of rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sciatica, gout and other diseases for which TONGALINE is the specific remedy.

Too often morphine is given to quiet this pain and to save the nervous system from wreck. But morphine would never cure the disease. External application of lotions and liniments are equally ineffective for permanent cure.

In TONGALINE we have an anodyne more helpful and far safer than morphine, combined with eliminating ingredients which cure the disease permanently.

STEEL MILL.

An Effort Is Being Made to Locate One on the Lloyd Tract on the South Side.

The plan to organize a company to purchase the Lloyd tract on the South Side has not been declared off by any means and the work is being continued by interested parties. At present an effort is being made to land a steel mill. The company in question is now capitalized at $3,000,000 and employs 1,200 men with a monthly pay roll of about $50,000. The parties who have the matter in charge will give out no information in regard to the company, but say their chances for landing the concern are very good.

APPLE ALLEY SEWER

CAUSES ANNOYANCE TO KOS- SUTH STREET RESIDENTS.

Their Cellars Have Been Flooded Three Times This Winter Because It Clogged.

The Apple alley sewer was clogged up Saturday and as a result the cellars under several houses on Kossuth street were filled with water. The engineer's force worked until 4 o'clock Sunday morning before they succeeded in getting the sewer open, and then it was necessary to dig it up a short distance south of Kossuth street. It is the intention to put in a manhole at this point. This is the third time the sewer has stopped this winter and the cellars have been flooded. The residents are getting tired of it and are talking of asking council to pay for the damage they have been caused, as they think the trouble is due to the fact that slip from the potteries is run in the sewer. Engineer George says he does not know what causes the trouble, but that it will be thoroughly investigated and remedied, if possible. The sewer is an eight-inch one and the residents say the trouble must be stopped or they will file a bill for damages with council the next time their cellars are flooded. They think they have stood the annoyance until patience has ceased to be a virtue in their case.

Youngstown puddlers are getting $6 a ton, the highest in years. It was $4 during the panic and few at that.

Judge Smith says the politics of Wellsville is in a deplorable condition. So are the streets and several other things.

One of the speakers at the Young Men's Republican club' Wellsville, said he wanted the alleys of that burg made fit for swine to travel on. Scarcely complimentary to his fellow citizens, was he?

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

The Anti-Saloon league has become a power in the political field, and astute politicians are wide awake in their knowledge of the fact.

PLAIN JUSTICE.

Justice demands that the claim of Whan and Grim against Mayor Bough and his bondsmen shall be declared untenable.

Justice, backed by the taxpayers of East Liverpool, demands that the claim of Whan and Grim against this municipality shall be declared untenable.

CAN THIS BE TRUE?

One of the members of the jury before which the Whan and Grim claim was heard the other day declares that one of the two members who voted in favor of Whan and Grim said, after the jury agreed to disagree:

"My mind was fully made up in this case before any of the testimony was adduced."

KILL THE CURSE.

Watch yourselves, fathers and mothers of East Liverpool. Kill the curse! We have reference to the cigarette, a feeder for the saloon. One bright boy, just budding into manhood, said to the writer: "Yes, sir, I'll try to quit smoking 'em; but it will be a tough job. I've tackled it and been licked; but I'll try it again. Don't blame me too much, sir; put part of the blame on the men in town. I've bought 'em on Sunday from one of our city officials."

IT MUST GO.

Name it! The un-American saloon. And the Clark bill is one of the entering wedges which shall split the giant tree of the Liquor league to the very center of its foul heart. Pass the Clark bill, and many townships and wards will bar out the saloon. Defeat the Clark bill, and from its grave shall grow a harvest which shall ring the death knell of the political life of many an ambitious politician. Forbearance has ceased to be a virtue. This foul blot on the fair fame of our great and grand Republic must be wiped out of existence. The un-American saloon must go. The handwriting is on the wall. The right will prevail.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The congressional fight promises to be a battle royal. Taylor and Baker are already working like Trojans, each with a strong following, while Mahoning county promises to place a candidate in the field. Taylor's record at Washington has been a fine one, and this has added much to his chances. Baker's life record is a splendid one and he is backed by an element whose name is hustle, and they are leaving no stone unturned in the struggle for the nomination of their favorite. Only a short time since it seemed that Taylor would have a walkover for the berth; but now his warmest admirers admit that there will be a hot struggle for the coveted plum between himself and Baker. Time will develop the power and strength of the Mahoning man, in case such an one enters the arena. We await developments.

WATCH THE JURY!

Watch the action of the new jury on the Whan and Grim claim tomorrow. There are vital issues at stake in this matter, and a blunder may cause serious trouble in the future. Rumor has it that the majority of the existing council will vote to pay the claim at once, in case any jury in the land will vote in favor of the claimants, arguing that once paid, the defense might not carry matters up to a higher tribunal. If they try that dodge, they will count on a false helper, as there are men interested who will stand no nonsense or foolishness. There are wheels within wheels. Watch the result. No trickery or cunning will be permitted in this case, outside of square legal processes. The present council has already run the city into a snug bill of indebtedness by failing to listen to the wise counsel of the city solicitor.

The Masons will have charge of the services.

UNIFORM WAGE SCALE

The Committees Finished the Work Last Saturday.

THE SCALE WAS ADOPTED

Manufacturers and Operatives Are Very Well Pleased With the Result and the New List Goes Into Effect Shortly After May 1.

The uniform wage scale has been adopted, the manufacturers and Brotherhood committees having completed their labors in Pittsburgh Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The scale will become effective in 60 potteries and effect 10,000 potters.

The question of the uniform scale was first broached at the joint meeting of the United States Potters' association and the Brotherhood committees when it was decided to return to the operatives the 12½ per cent they had been reduced on account of the Wilson tariff bill. President A. S. Hughes has used his best endeavors for a uniform scale for the last seven years and a half and is highly pleased with the result. He says it will be a good thing for the entire potting trade and the list is best for all parties concerned, manufacturers and operatives alike. He says it will take several days to get the list ready for the printers, as there is still plenty of work to be done to thoroughly finish the matter. The list is a mammoth affair and President Hughes states that it would take several hours to explain it to anyone.

Colonel John N. Taylor when seen stated that he was well pleased with the result and the list was most satisfactory to all parties concerned. He said both committees were liberal and it was a case of give and take or they would have never succeeded in reaching an agreement. He said he expected there would be some objection on the part of some of the workingmen, but they had no reason for it, as their committee was most honorable and at all times worked for the interests of the operatives. He said the list would be operative in every pottery in the country and did not mean a general advance in wages. Colonel Taylor further said that the best of feeling prevailed among the committees and he thought the list was a splendid thing for the potting trade, as it meant that all the factories would pay the same wages and it would have the effect of doing away with many of the petty differences that arise in the different potteries.

The new scale covers all departments of the pottery trade, and while it includes reductions and advances in various individual items the scale is practically the wages heretofore paid. When the workers started they took the wages paid in all the potteries and averaged them, making that a basis for their operations. The potters claim that it is impossible to intelligently mention any particular wage as the base price, as it varies widely over the 3,000 articles included in the scale.

It comprises about 3,000 items, the potters being paid by piece work. Heretofore each pottery has had a different rate for different kinds of ware, and as new designs were being introduced each year the tangle has been increased instead of lessened. The variance in rates caused considerable friction among the workmen and much annoyance to the manufacturers. About two years ago a move was made to have the wages of all the potteries made uniform and the workingmen and a committee of the manufacturers have been busy ever since trying to arrive at something satisfactory. The new scale accomplishes what has been aimed at for years. It will go into effect the first full pay after the first day of May.

WILL WAIVE A HEARING

The Grim Case Will Go to Common Pleas Court.

CANNOT BE SETTLED HERE

Solicitor McGarry Has Decided to Let the Plaintiffs Take Judgment Here and Will Fight the Case Out in the Court of Common Pleas—He Has Good Grounds.

The case of D. Arthur Grim against the city and Mayor Bough is set for a hearing in the court of Squire Rose tomorrow afternoon, but there won't be any hearing. The jury men selected are G. H. Owen, George J. Phillips, W. L. Smith, Henry Joseph, H. A. McNicol and George Buxton.

Solicitor McGarry has decided to make no defense this time but to let the plaintiffs take judgment by default. In giving his reasons for the action the solicitor said: "The charge of the court to the last jury was such to my mind as to convince me that he and I didn't construe the law the same. Under the laws of the state of Ohio a justice of the peace can grant a new trial almost the same as the common pleas court and in event of a verdict against the law as the justice of the peace construes it a new trial might and could be granted, so that if a verdict was rendered against our version of the law and a new trial granted, then we would be right back where we started from. In case of a verdict either way neither party would be satisfied, and the case could not be determined here so it is just saving time and trouble by going immediately to the court of common pleas."

CENSUS ENUMERATORS.

It Will Take One For Every Ward and Candidates For the Job Will be Plenty.

There will be a census enumerator in each precinct. Already several people have made application to District Enumerator Hostetter for the position and received application blanks. The enumerators are required to pass examinations and file a bond. An exceedingly heavy penalty is attached for giving out any information in regard to the census. It is expected the list will be given out pretty soon, as the census bureau is now nearly ready for the count. The job will pay at least $3 per day and enumerators must be residents of the district in which they take the census. Four schedules cover the enumerators' inquiries—schedules requiring information about population, vital statistics, manufactures and agriculture.

THAT ASSESSMENT.

The Board of Education Will Probably Be Asked to Thoroughly Investigate.

The Board of Education at their next meeting will probably be asked to investigate some of the statements made at the last meeting by Dr. Williams in regard to the piano assessment in one of the rooms at the Central building. An informant of the doctor is preparing to ask the board to investigate the matter and says that his statements can be proved and for that reason they court an investigation and do not propose to let the matter rest as it stands now with the statement that there has not been a case where a child has been sent home or where names have been placed on the blackboards. The people think the present investigation has not been complete enough or some cases might have been found.

A Persistent Poet.

Although R. K. Munkittrick has an enviable reputation as a humorist, yet he is not the quickest man in the world to see a joke when it is played on himself. Mr. Gibson, one of the editors of Puck and also a practical joker, arranged for a special jest to be administered to Mr. Munkittrick.

He had provided a trick telephone which emitted a shower of flour when anybody spoke into it.

When Mr. Munkittrick had arrived, it was suddenly discovered that the paper had gone to press and that his copy was too late. There was only one chance, Mr. Gibson said, and that was to telephone to the printer and tell him to stop the presses until his matter should be set up and inserted. He asked Mr. Munkittrick to go to the phone at once.

Then the staff sat and held their sides, waiting for the explosion. Finally Mr. Gibson rushed to the telephone and found his friend deluged in flour but still persistently calling "Hello" through the phone.

He led him back and carefully explained the joke.

When he finished, Munkittrick calmly remarked:

"Still, I think we ought to let the printer know about the copy; don't you?"—Saturday Evening Post.

J. S. Miller, drunk. Hearing tonight. The case against Silas Hilton will be heard tonight.

Will Attend Funeral of His Sister.

Jacob Shenkle left this morning for Akron to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Robinson. Mrs. Henry Brunt, Herbert and William Bloom, of this city, also attended the funeral.

MANSELL'S FAREWELL

Delivered a Caustic Address to His Congregation.

IT WAS SOMEWHAT SENSATIONAL

Spoke of What Constituted a Successful Church—Depended Largely Upon the Character of the Membership and the Church Officers—Illustrations.

Rev. Walter Mansell preached his farewell sermon at the Christian church last evening, taking as his subject: "What Constitutes a Successful Church."

He said his time here had been so short that he did not care to enter into any review. It seemed to have been all winter. If he left any message he wished it to be: "Be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of God," but he believed it would be better to speak a few words upon what constituted a successful church. The success of a church depended upon, first, the character of the members; second, the character of the officers. The purpose of the original church was to save men. The first requisite was that the membership should be thoroughly and soundly converted.

Just as no man built a steel structure of wood, nor used rotten logs as a foundation for a ten-story building, nor covered his house with paper, so the membership of a church should be consistently Christian. When he saw members indulging in the questionable things of the day that did not bear the stamp of the Christ life, it was apparent that they had never been thoroughly and soundly converted, though their names might be upon a dozen church rolls. They must be men of prayer, but prayer without work did not amount to much. One might pray all day for a child and leave the cistern open for it to fall into; might pray all week for crops, forgetting to sow the seed and starve to death. They must also be a paying membership. The cause of so little progress was so many dead heads. They must also have the Christ spirit. The trouble was so many wanted to be bosses or nothing. Christ bathed the disciples' feet. He taught that those who wished to be first must be willing to be last.

The character of the officers was equally important. They must be of good repute. Their secret life must be as clear as the noonday sun. They must love God's work. Men who do not lie, who do not cheat, who do not swear, and who do not visit back doors of saloons. They must be consecrated. A man who will bet a dollar that there will be no conversions during a revival is not a proper church officer.

In closing Mr. Mansell said: "I have never said that your board was opposed to me. Many of them are large hearted consecrated men. But some criticisms mixed with the expressions of sorrow have come to our ears since our resignation. It is said that we leave you because we were forced to a vote. When any one says that, we left because of that reason he either doesn't know what he is talking about or tells a falsehood. But we leave with kindly feeling for all. We will remember nothing but the sunshine and the smiles."

OUR ALPHA ADDITION,

Located south of Bank street extended, east of Bradshaw and north of Huston Addition, is taking with home-seekers. These are the cheapest lots in the city within same distance of the Diamond. They lie well and you can reach them by paved streets. It is wondered why we sell them on the terms. Some get the impression that they are inferior and we want to shove them off. Such is not the case. The lots are slightly sloping, but none to hurt; face to the south, and are really worth more money. We sell them on the terms because we are permanently engaged in the real estate business, and, owning this addition, choose to sell these lots in this way. Anyone can afford to buy one. The terms are

$5 DOWN AND $1 PER WEEK.

Those country residence sites of 2 and 2½ acres, known as

RQSS' MEADOWS,

Is where you ought to build your country home. Roads to Lisbon, Wellsville, Cannon's Mill, Calcutta and East Liverpool cross there, making outlets to every direction. Some fine day call and we will drive you out if interested.

Within the past week we have deeded and sold five of these fourteen lots in the addition joining Oakland. The location and prices are doing the work. Lots 30x119. Price $225. Terms easy.

Our sales of real estate since January have amounted to more than $25,000. We have customers now for $50,000 worth. If you have any property to sell, place it with us.

BECKHAM IS GUARDED.

Nucleus of New Kentucky Militia Organized.

REPUBLICAN FORCE INCREASED.

Another Militia Company Arrived at Frankfort and More Expected—Men Under Arrest at Lexington Denied Complicity in Goebel Murder.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 12.—A move on the part of Governor Beckham's followers toward the formation of a state guard under his administration, was in evidence here, when City Clerk Ben Marshall circulated a paper and enlisted the requisite number of men who are to compose a new company. The guns for this company were provided by citizens here, most of them being either needle guns or Winchester.

A report gained currency that Governor Taylor had given his soldiers orders to arrest Governor Beckham and other officers of the Democratic state government. On account of this report the men enlisted by Captain Marshall were assembled at the city hall, armed and sworn in as special police for the purpose of protecting the Democratic officers who were quartered at the Capitol hotel.

A large number of citizens also volunteered and were assigned to various posts in the vicinity of the hotel to offer a resistance in case the talk of arrests were attempted. Governor Taylor's soldiers, who were on guard at the state house, were reinforced by the arrival of the Barboursville company of 71 men, all of whom are fully armed and equipped. The Pineville and London companies were expected.

Governor Beckham appointed Colonel David R. Murray, of Clover Point, assistant adjutant general, with the rank of colonel, and he was sworn in.

The official announcement was made that this appointment was only temporary. This was regarded as significant, it being understood that Colonel Murray accepted the appointment on account of the gravity of the present situation and with the understanding that he could resign when the conditions in the state became more quiet.

SOLDIERS AROUND JAIL.

Powers and Davis in Prison, at Lexington—Admit They Made Mistake in Disguising Themselves.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 12.—Impulsive action, under perhaps misguided impressions, came near precipitating bloodshed which would not have ended with the threatened riot at the depot when Secretary of State Powers and Captain Davis were arrested by the Lexington officials. Time was ripe, under misleading reports that mountain men were preparing to rescue the prisoners from jail, for desperate resistance on the part of the local officials, who are mostly Goebel men. Had an attempt been made to take the prisoners from jail the result is unpleasant to contemplate.

The adoption of such disguise by Davis and Powers in order to get out of Frankfort, they being dressed as soldiers, puts an ugly phase on the matter for the prisoners, in the opinion of some of their friends here, although they explain that they did so merely to get away from the local Goebel influences which they allege would work to their detriment in securing a fair trial. Both tacitly admit now that in this they may have made mistakes, as strongly urge their innocence of any connection with the murder of Goebel and insist that they have no fear whatever as to the outcome.

Sheriff Bosworth, of this county, says he will give the men as speedy an examining trial as they desire, but he does not think it proper to have their trial for several days yet, on account of the excitement.

Sheriff Suter, who came here from Frankfort, stated that he did not know when the men would be taken back to Frankfort. It will not be, however, till the examining trial is over here, which will simply decide that the local court has no jurisdiction, and the prisoners will then be taken to Frankfort.

All is quiet here and the soldiers still guard the jail. The armory is deserted, as all arms are in the hands of the local soldiery on duty at the jail.

Colonel Roger Williams, of the Second Kentucky regiment, was wired to return from Connorsville, Ind., but he has not answered. Captain Longmire stated that in case Colonel Williams comes he will take no orders from him.

In this case there will be a conflict of military authority, and if Colonel Williams decides to take the armory he will have to do it by force. The prisoners, however, may be removed before that eventually occurs.

Reports from high sources in the Beckham ranks are to the effect that Governor Beckham may move the state capital here, but there is nothing more than rumor so far.

Powers and Davis were on a train Saturday night, leaving Frankfort, guarded by soldiers. At the depot here, officers got aboard, outnumbering the soldiers, and made the arrest. Powers was hurt, being hit on the head, possibly with a club.

Taylor Pardoned Arrested Men.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 12.—According to a statement made by Governor W. S. Taylor he has granted a pardon to each of the persons from whom warrants have been issued charging them with being accessories to the assassination of Governor Goebel, including Secretary of State Caleb Powers and ex-Secretary of State Charles Finley. In his statement, Governor Taylor recites the conditions under which he claims to have been elected, and charges the Democratic contestants for State offices with conspiracy to secure control of the government.

CURRENCY BILL WILL PASS.

Believed It Will Command Full Republican Vote in House—Forecast for the Week.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The week in the house promises to be rather dull. Today the contested election case of Wise vs. Young, from the Second Virginia district, which has been debated for two days, will be voted upon. Dr. Wise, the contestant, who is a Republican, was seated by a former congressman on a contest and the indications are that he will be again seated.

Tomorrow the conference report upon the financial bill will be disposed of. There may be some lively debate upon the report, but it will command the full party strength on the Republican side and will be adopted. The remainder of the week will be devoted to appropriation bills, of which two have been reported to the house, the army and the District of Columbia bills.

THE RESIGNATION OF WHEELER.

Why the President Did Not Send It to War Department.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—It appears that General Wheeler did not tender his resignation last fall. It was dated Nov. 28, at a place called Paniqui, on the island of Luzon, and was not cabled, but came by the slow process of the mails. Moreover, it did not come directly to the war department, but went to the White House, where it has been reposing since its arrival in Washington. The war department officials have just learned of it.

The general's resignation was not accepted promptly by the president, out of consideration for the officer. Instead he was ordered to report to the war department at Washington. His resignation will be accepted here and the effect of this action will be to allow the officer his mileage and expenses to Washington.

QUAY RESOLUTION TO BE CONSIDERED

The Porto Rican Bill Also May Be Taken Up in Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The senate will continue to give attention to the Porto Rican bill and the Quay resolution this week, with a possibility that there may be a diversion in favor of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty and Senator Mason's Boer resolution.

Mr. Mason says it is his purpose to call up his resolution again and to get a vote upon it if possible. Senator Davis has expressed an intention to ask the senate to take up the treaty during the latter part of the week, but Senator Foraker, in charge of the Porto Rican bill, expresses confidence that Senator Davis will not bring the treaty forward at a time to embarrass the Porto Rican measure.

HURRYING TO A DEATHBED.

Rev. John McGinty Was Rushing East to Cheer a Dying Friend.

HAZLETON, Pa., March 12.—Rev. John McGinty, a Catholic priest of San Francisco, passed through here on a race across the continent to the bedside of a parishioner, who is critically ill at North Adams, Mass.

It is the desire of the aged and sick parishioner to see the priest before he died and Rev. McGinty was hurrying with all possible speed to North Adams, and expected to reach there in time to cheer the last moments of his friend.

Mrs. Herman De Vries Dead.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Mrs. Herman De Vries, wife of the opera singer, died in this city.

The wild white sheep is found nowhere in the world but in Alaska and few specimens for mounting whole have ever been obtained.

WARNING OF GEN. ROBERTS.

Informed the Boer Presidents He Would Not Stand Violation of Civilized Usages of War.

LONDON, March 12.—The war office received advices from Lord Roberts, dated Driefontein, Sunday, March 11, 9:15 a. m., containing the following:

"The following telegram has been addressed by me to their honors, the state presidents of the Orange Free State and the South African republic:

"Another instance having occurred of gross abuse of the white flag and of the signal of holding up hands in token of surrender, it is my duty to inform you that if such abuse occurs again I shall most reluctantly be compelled to order my troops to disregard the white flag entirely.

"The instance occurred on a kopje east of Driefontein farm, yesterday evening, and was witnessed by several of my own staff officers, as well as by myself, and resulted in the wounding of several of my officers and men.

"A large quantity of explosive bullets of three different kinds was found in Commandant Croje's laager, and this has been the case after every engagement with your honor's troops. Such breaches of the recognized usages of war and of the Geneva convention are a disgrace to any civilized power. A copy of this telegram has been sent to my government with the request that it may be communicated to all neutral powers."

PAYMASTER IN IRONS.

McNamara Caught Near Chicago and Taken to Altoona—Accused of Embezzlement.

PITTSBURGH, March 12.—J. D. McNamara, late assistant paymaster in the Pennsylvania railroad shops at Altoona, was brought to Pittsburgh in irons from Chicago, and was later taken to Altoona, where he is wanted for the alleged embezzlement of Pennsylvania railroad checks to the amount of $2,563.76.

McNamara was arrested on train No. 9, on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad, just as the train was pulling into Chicago. The arrest was made by Captain Bradley, of the Fort Wayne police department, assisted by one of his lieutenants. They had been advised of McNamara's departure from Altoona, and they had him located several hours before the train reached Chicago.

Captain Bradley and his lieutenant brought McNamara to this city on Fort Wayne train No. 6. At Union station the prisoner was turned over to John Emigh, of the police department of the Pennsylvania railroad, and Francis S. Gaither, of Philadelphia, manager of the Assurance Company of North America.

FUNERAL OF PHELPS.

Dr. Timothy Dwight Delivered the Address—Yale Men Acted as Pallbearers.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 12.—Funeral services for the late Edward J. Phelps, ex-minister to England, were held in Battel Chapel. Dr. Timothy Dwight delivered the funeral address. The college choir sang two hymns, "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me."

The plain black coffin was carried into the chapel on the shoulders of eight seniors, members of the Wolf's Head fraternity, of which Professor Phelps was an honorary member.

Among the honorary pallbearers were: President Arthur T. Hadley, of Yale; Professor William Graham Sumner and Dean Francis Wyland.

The body was taken to Burlington, Vt., where the interment in the family plot will be made tomorrow.

WHITAKER AND CULTON MOVED.

Taken From Frankfort to the Jail at Louisville.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 12.—Harlan Whittaker and W. H. Culton, who were confined in jail here charged with complicity in the assassination of Goebel, were removed from the jail and taken in a hack to Shelbyville, where they were placed on a train and sent to Louisville under a heavy guard. It is understood they will be kept in the Louisville jail till the April term of the circuit court, when they will be returned here for trial.

Suspected of Counterfeiting.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., March 12.—Mrs. George Rossacio is under arrest at Clarksburg for passing two-dollar silver notes raised to fives. It is believed she is the notorious Belle Freedland, who was arrested at the World's fair, at Chicago, for passing counterfeit money, and who a year later was sentenced to a term in the penitentiary in the state for the same offense.

BE A GOOD BOY! GOODBY!

How oft in my dreams I go back to the day
When I stood at our old wooden gate
And started to school in full battle array,
Well armed with a primer and slate,
And as the latch fell I thought myself free
And gloried, I fear, on the sly,
Till I heard a kind voice that whispered to me:
"Be a good boy! Goodbye!"

"Be a good boy! Goodbye!" It seems
They have followed me all these years;
They have given a form to my youthful dreams
And scattered my foolish fears;
They have staid my feet on many a brink,
Unseen by a blinded eye,
For just in time I would pause and think:
"Be a good boy! Goodbye!"

Oh, brother of mine, in the battle of life,
Just starting or nearing its close,
This motto aloft, in the midst of the strife,
Will conquer wherever it goes!
Mistakes you will make, for each of us errs,
But, brother, just honestly try
To accomplish your best. In whatever occurs
"Be a good boy! Goodbye!"
—John L. Shroy in Saturday Evening Post.

A PARTIALLY OBEYED ORDER

The Reporter Returned, but the Mule
Was a Total Loss.

Harmon W. Brown of Ohio, who held a responsible place on the staff of General Rawlins during the civil war, tells the following story of the general's treatment of an intrusive reporter:

"One day before Vicksburg the correspondent of a certain paper went to General Rawlins for news.

"The general pondered a moment and took me one side.

"Take this young man," he said, "up to the top of those trenches within a stone's throw of the enemy. Take him up there and lose him. I don't care what happens. Understand?"

"I said I did, and we started through the lines. Both of us were mounted. I pointed out a crest overlooking the enemy and told him he could get a good view from that point.

"Ain't you coming with me?" he asked.

"No," I replied. "I know all I want to know."

"So he started alone. As soon as the top of his hat and the tips of his mule's ears showed above the crest there came a volley of musketry ten yards wide that cut the air like a big knife blade. The crown of his hat was sliced off as with shears. He managed to drop to the ground in safety, but the persevering mule was literally filled with lead. After the firing ceased the correspondent crawled to the spot where I was.

"Did you learn what you wanted to know?" I asked.

"Eh?" gasped the correspondent, wiping his face and looking at his hands to see whether they were bloody. "What I wanted to know? Oh, yes, of course. The enemy are over that ridge all right."

"When we returned to headquarters, General Rawlins saw us and hailed me. I went inside his tent.

"I thought I told you to lose that confounded reporter somewhere," he said testily.

"I did the best I could, sir," I answered. "He came back, but I have the honor to report the mule a total loss." — Saturday Evening Post.

A Navajo Superstition.

No Navajo Indian will ever make a campfire of wood from a tree that was struck by lightning or that might have been. If such a fire is made by an irreverent white man, the Indians will retire to a distance, where they cannot feel the heat or smell the smoke, and they will go to sleep in their blankets, fireless and supperless, rather than eat of food prepared on that kind of a fire. The Navajo believes that if he comes within the influence of the flame he will absorb some of the essence of the lightning which will thereafter be attracted to him and sooner or later will kill him. Up in the mountains more than half the great pines are scarred by lightning, but no wood from them is used. Almost any old Navajo can narrate instances where the neglect of this precaution has resulted disastrously, for men are sometimes killed by lightning in a region where thunder storms are frequent, and it is but a step from the effect to the cause.

What Joseph Was.

The Sunday school teacher had been telling the class about Joseph, particularly with reference to his coat of many colors and how his father rewarded him for being a good boy. For Joseph, she said, told his father when ever he caught any of his brothers in the act of doing wrong.

"Can any little boy or girl tell me what Joseph was?" the teacher asked, hoping that some of them had caught the idea that he was Jacob's favorite.

"I know," one of the little girls said, holding up her hand.
"What was he?"

THE SAMPLE FIEND

It Takes Lots of Material to Supply the Sampler's Demands.

Coming suddenly upon a salesman in a retail store who had a number of yard long lengths of new piques liberally sprinkled with those little price tags (the pins all stuck through the several thicknesses and bent down), one understood all at once the full import of the demands of the sample fiend. Marked off evenly like a check erboard, with 17 price tags lengthwise and seven to the width, which made 119 to the yard, the salesman was going over the lot with a pencil, setting down the width and price on each.

At one store the one who is at the head of each stock attends to the preparing of the samples of his particular stock. Thus the pique samples would be cut by one, samples of swiss by another, of organdie by another, and so on. In the silk department one man, who is kept for the purpose, does it all. And it takes all his time.

For people from a distance who do their buying by mail this is of course a very good method. But the part to which all sane people take exception is the senseless sampling of those who wander aimlessly about, evidently gathering samples as a thoughtless child sometimes pulls twigs in passing bushes. The worst of it is we have to pay for this senseless woman's foolishness, it being often observable that the biggest samplers are the smallest buyers. One clerk says that he has actually seen thrown upon the sidewalk the samples given to a woman after showing her his whole stock, her purchase being ostensibly postponed because of her fear that the goods will not match something or other.

The time is past when these scraps went to feed the insatiable crazy quilt fiends. — Philadelphia Record.

His Resentment.

A Memphis young lady who is very fond of her sister's little child, a boy of 2 or 3 years, who is visiting her now, was trying yesterday to get him to let her "fix him up" to have his photograph taken. She got her curling tongs and was trying to coax him to let her curl his hair. But with true boyish disgust at the idea of having his hair treated like a girl's he refused to submit to the process. She insisted, however, and offered him every kind of bribe, but in every instance he refused to allow her to do what she wished, and finally, becoming tired of her attempt to get him to submit, he sat down, crossed his legs and looked up at her very seriously and said:

"Auntie, I tell you what I'll do. I won't take a dollar to let you curl my hair, but I'll give you a dollar if you just go away and let my hair alone." — Memphis Scimitar.

Wounded In Battle.

An army loses far more of its strength through its wounded than through its killed. In the first place there are four or five wounded to one killed, and in the second place the dead men give no trouble, while the wounded require an immense number of noncombatants to attend to them. A great many of the wounded return again to duty, their wounds being comparatively slight, but as a rule more than half of them take no more part in the war. — London Answers.

A Cat's Long Jump.

How far can a cat jump without hurting itself was partly exemplified in Brooklyn the other night. A pretty white cat ran up a tree to get away from a dog and at last crawled out on a small branch at least 60 feet above the ground. The branch was not much more than a twig, and the cat could not turn around. She sat up there in the swaying limb and meowed. At last the twig broke, and down came the cat. She alighted on the ground on her feet, looked around for a moment and then bounded away; which shows that a 60 foot drop does not hurt a Brooklyn cat, whatever it might do to cats of other places. — Pittsburg Dispatch.

UNION LABELS

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours and union labor employed.

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

CIGARETTES AND RICE

Main Foods of the Filipinos Says an Interesting East Liverpool Letter.

Edward Fowler, 267 Third street, has received a most interesting letter from Fred Martin, Co. K, 47th regiment, stationed at Sorsogon, coast of Luzon, Philippines, dated Feb. 2. Martin says despite the intense heat he hasn't been sick a day. Sorsogon is in the south, about 300 miles from Manila. The 47th was the first American regiment to land there and it took the town without any resistance. About 700 Filipinos retreated to the mountains with four cannon but two of the 47th companies went out skirmishing and captured all. The transports were escorted by the Nashville and Helena. The transports could not get within five miles of the shore, the bay being shallow. The capture of Sorsogon marked the complete control of Southern Luzon by the Americans. The Sixth artillery is with the regiment. The town itself, built of bamboo, with coconut branches for roofing, struck Martin as funny. He says: "I thought there were no inhabitants until the band began to play and then they seemed to come up out of the ground. The people are very small and live mostly on cigarettes and rice. All are very friendly to the soldiers."

Other letters received from the same party contained a Ceylon penny and a very handsome belt.

Shingleton is well.

John Shingleton, a member of Co. A, 12th infantry, says he is now located at Gerona, P. I., and is on Major Adams' staff. The letter was received by his brother-in-law, Harry Merchant, and he sent a Japanese coin and some beads. He reports that he and his father, Isaac Shingleton, are both well.

* SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE.

Only Two Loads. "At the close of the war," said a southern representative today, "a great many negroes in the south refused to leave their old homes. My father gathered his former slaves about him and told them they were free and must leave him. Some went and others remained. Among the latter was an old darky named Eph, who swore he would not leave, but would stay and take his chances. 'All right, Eph,' said my father. 'Just take four or five acres and go in on the three and four plan.'"

"An what am dat, massa, fo' de Lawd's sake?" "Why, if you raise three loads of corn you must give me one and you keep two." So Uncle Eph went to work and raised a crop. At harvest time my father rode over the farm and noticed that Eph had cut his corn. Seeing the old fellow, he rode up and asked him why he didn't do as he had agreed about dividing the corn.

"Well, massa, yoh said if I raised free loads of corn I wuz to gib yoh one an take two loads myself, an I done only raised two loads."--Washington Times.

Jerrold's Wit.

The English have been accused for so long of dullness in their humor that several stories related of the eminent wit Douglas Jerrold may not be out of place as showing that the charge is sometimes untrue. It appears that at a dinner one gentleman who had been eating a dish of sheep's head with great gusto exclaimed as he laid down his knife and fork, "Sheep's head forever, say I!" "There's egotism," said Jerrold.

Sometimes, through a joke, Jerrold conveyed good advice or a word of warning. He was enjoying a drive one day with a jovial spendthrift behind a pair of grays. "Well, what do you think of my grays?" asked his impecunious friend. "To tell you the truth," replied Jerrold, "I was thinking more of your duns."

The Price of Admission.

Mrs. Smyth (looking up from her paper) What does it mean in the Washington news when it speaks of "the lower house?"

Mr. Smyth--That means the house of representatives. The senate is higher.

Mrs. Smyth--How is it higher? Do you mean that it costs more to get there?--Philadelphia Record.

Wanted to Sit in Her Own Lap. The little 3-year-old daughter of one of the leading ministers in Little Rock resents too great familiarity. One evening, though she seemed a little unwilling, a young man, who was calling, took her upon his lap, whereupon she said, with great gravity: "I want to sit in my own lap." It is needless to add that the young man immediately put her down.

Alert to Present It.

"The great danger," said the grave citizen, "is that we will drift into a paternal form of government."

"Yes," answered Mr. Meekton, with a sigh. "Henriette seems worried about that every time I speak to the children."--Washington Star.

AS IN "IN HIS STEPS."

Sheldon Conducting Paper as He Thinks Would Christ.

FIRST OF HIS ISSUES TOMORROW.

The Topeka Capital For the Week Already Has a Circulation of 100,000 and Matrices Are to Be Sent Elsewhere. Staff Heard Sheldon Preach.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 12.—The Topeka Capital will come out tomorrow morning under the direction of the Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, the noted Topeka divine and author of "In His Steps," who will run it for six days as he believes Jesus would were he on earth now engaged in the newspaper business.

Rev. Mr. Sheldon took charge of the paper today.

Aside from contributions from distinguished writers in Kansas and elsewhere, Mr. Sheldon gets out the paper with the present staff. He received hundreds of applications from people all over the country, wanting to work on the paper. Nearly all of these tried to impress upon him that they know just what sort of news Jesus would print. A few of them, however, admitted that they want to work for the novelty of the thing, so that they can say that they were connected with the Christian daily under Sheldon's management. The most of the applicants were preachers.

The Capital said editorially this morning:

"On Tuesday morning our readers will be presented to the first of the six copies of The Capital to be issued by the Rev. Mr. Sheldon. The difference between the present style and character of the paper and that of the coming week will no doubt be quite radical and will be appreciated and enjoyed by our readers. We are all willing to learn, and if there are apparent improvements in methods, makeup and matter which Mr. Sheldon can demonstrate we will cheerfully adopt them so far as practicable for an ordinary every day daily to do.

"We believe Mr. Sheldon will discover before the week is over that making a daily paper every day is equal to a sermon every day. There will be days when the minds of those who make the paper do not work as well as other days. The experiment is a good one to try for a week or longer, and no man we have ever known illustrates in his daily walk the principles Mr. Sheldon will aim to put into the warp and woof of The Capital for the week better than he does."

Not a cent of the profits of The Daily Capital during his control, not even a cent of wages, is to go to him. The business manager of the paper said that if the profits were very large a portion might be offered to the preacher for his charities, but he was by no means certain that on this basis the offer would be accepted.

There will be 100,000 copies of The Capital printed here daily during the week. Matrices will be sent to New York, Chicago, Atlanta, Denver and San Francisco, from which papers will be printed and distributed throughout the contiguous states. An edition will also be printed in London. Letters with subscriptions are pouring in like an avalanche.

The Capital publishes no Monday

morning edition and for this reason the question of Sunday work will not come up at the beginning of Rev. Sheldon's newspaper week.

SHELDON'S PERSONALITY.

Seems to Have a Knack of Doing All Things Well People Believe In Him.

TOPEKA, March 12.—In the course of an interview, Rev. Mr. Sheldon remarked that he was not an editor or a novelist. Further along he said in part: "My duty is in my pulpit and parish. I was led into the experiment with The Capital by a desire to put my theories of reform to the test, but I shall attempt nothing of the kind after that is finished. I have had offers from several metropolitan papers to assume charge of their columns for limited periods, but have refused. I am making arrangements to go to Europe in the early summer and when I return shall devote myself absolutely to my church work and to my small charities."

Mr. Sheldon gives you the impression of a man distinctly ill at ease with his fame. He has a broad, high forehead, covered with a heavy growth of brown hair, frank brown eyes, a mouth more gentle than determined, and a slightly receding chin.

Distinctly a home man one would say, than to whom, as he declared, his parish is his first consideration.

Among the many evidences of his sincerity given by people here are these:

At every pronounced step in the increase of the sale of his book, "In His Steps," he has forced his publishers to reduce the price, thus reducing the author's gains.

The editor of The Capital was asked if Mr. Sheldon's control of the paper was to be absolute.

"Indeed it is," said he. "I have contracted simply to make the paper as devilish as possible before and after in order to afford Mr. Sheldon an effective contrast."

"He was for a month a voluntary reporter for The Capital winter before last," said the colonel, "and he did the best work in that line that we ever had. He is a born newspaper man."

"Mr. Sheldon once worked in a rolling mill," volunteered a bystander, "and the proprietor said when he quit that he was a born rolling mill man."

"I guess," said Colonel Hudson, "that he is born to anything he tries to do."

A significant fact of the situation here on the eve of the beginning of an experiment which has set two continents to marveling and has raised the circulation of a country daily to nearly 300,000, is the universal respect, amounting in many instances to veneration, in which the preacher-editor is regarded.

The woman at the bookstand tells you that he is a good man. The street car conductor tells you he is an honest man. The editor of the paper which will print Howe's lay sermons said that one thing first of all must be admitted, and that is that the Rev. Mr. Sheldon is sincere.

The people have no fear that his experiment will be in the least degree shocking or sacrilegious. They see no possibility of impiety in this wonderfully honest parson taking a newspaper and conducting it as he believes that Christ would conduct it. It is simply a man trying in splendid candor to work out Christ's teachings.

NOT AN EXPANSIONIST.

Rev. Mr. Sheldon Also Opposed to the War in the Philippines—Other Points of His Policy.

TOPEKA, March 12.—The Rev. Mr. Sheldon took some persons into his confidence, although he would make no public declaration of his plans in advance, for the running of The Capital. A forecast was about as follows:

Oppose the war against the Filipinos as one of injustice, aggression and unpatriotism.

Oppose annexation and the general policy of expansion.

Conduct a crusade against what are called the "joints" here, being drug-store saloons, or other similar resorts running against the law, and with the obvious connivance of the police.

Declare for the reform of the stage and the revival of Shakespearean drama, reform all stage advertising and criticisms of stage entertainments.

Insist upon editing the advertisements with as much freedom as he does the reading matter, reserving to himself the right to determine the amount of space each advertisement shall occupy, its position in the paper, and the date of its publication.

Discard all sporting news of the ruder

kind, such as boxing and wrestling, but devote special attention to real manly and womanly athletics.

Discard all divorce court news and everything of a scandalous character, as well as criminal news, which is generally published merely because it is news of crime and interesting from this fact.

In case a murder in Topeka, which would seem to require the paper's attention, print the barest possible account of the tragedy and devote ample space to a philosophical and moral analysis of the matter, designed to show how inevitable is the punishment that overtakes wrongdoing and how all terrible crimes are the outgrowth of what at first were minor sins.

Take no part in the discussion of old national issues and state politics.

Devote considerable editorial space to an exposition of this policy, showing how it follows the line of the teachings of Christ.

REJECTED MANY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Opposed to Exploiting Patent Medicines and Opera Houses—Objected to Others.

TOPEKA, March 12.—Mr. Sheldon will print during the week about 20 columns of advertisements daily, half of the space being set apart for Topeka advertisers. Contracts have been made for all the available space.

Mr. Sheldon has rejected more advertisements than he has accepted. All advertisements of patent medicines have been rejected. Mr. Sheldon's reason is that he knows nothing of the curative properties of the medicines advertised and therefore cannot ask people to buy them. For this reason and others he has refused advertisements of cures for the liquor habit. His theory is that drunkenness is a habit and not a disease. He says he has not the time to investigate it.

He has rejected opera house advertisements and turned down one advertisement of a real estate dealer because an opera house was scheduled in the list of properties offered for sale.

All advertisements of corsets have been rejected. Mr. Sheldon says he does not believe in corsets. He thinks they are injurious to health and will not, therefore, advertise them. He has also warned all drygoods merchants not to send out of undergarments for females. He says he won't print them.

He has barred advertisements of retail merchants in Kansas City, Mo. He says Kansas City is a rival of Topeka and he believes in patronizing home concerns.

Heard Rev. Mr. Sheldon Preach.

TOPEKA, March 12.—The members of the Capital staff, at the request of Rev. Sheldon, attended services Sunday at his church, the Central Congregational. Most of the newspaper correspondents who have arrived in the city to report the incidents in the week of Rev. Sheldon's experiment of newspaper-making also attended this service. General Hudson, editor-in-chief, will take a week off.

A Victim of Footpads.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 12.—John B. Stout, a respected citizen, as he was on his way home on Senate avenue, was robbed and shot by footpads. He died the next night. The police have failed to find any clue to his assailants.

Boer Prisoners Tried to Escape.

LONDON, March 12.—The Cape Town correspondent of The Standard, telegraphing Sunday, said: "It is reported that the Boer prisoners at Simonton were found boring a tunnel underneath the lines of the camp. The work had made considerable progress before discovery."

Double Murder and Lynching.

VALDOSTA, Ga., March 12.—Near Jennings, Fla., two white men of the name of Carver were killed by a negro, who was captured by the sheriff. A mob quickly gathered, took the murderer away from the officers and swung him up to a tree.

Addison C. Rand Dead.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Western Pennsylvania Fair, continued cold today. Tomorrow fair and warmer; fresh north to east winds.

Ohio—Fair today. Tomorrow fair and warmer; fresh north to east winds.

BOERS TAKE MAFeking

THE REPORT NOT CONFIRMED.

Gravest Anxiety Felt in London—A Dispatch From Lourenzo Marques Said the Boers Declared the Capture of the Besieged Town Was Certain.

LONDON, March 12.—The Daily News has the following from Asvogel Kop, dated March 11:

"The march was continued today to this point. No Boers were seen on the way. The British are now only 25 miles from Bloemfontein. One of the Boer prisoners said the siege of Mafeking has been raised."

A correspondent of The Daily Mail, at Lourenzo Marques, telegraphing Saturday, said:

"According to Boer reports, the fall of Mafeking is certain. There has been heavy fighting this week and the Boers have been shelling the town from all the outlying forts, which they have captured. Colonel Baden Powell cleared all the natives out of town, but the Boers drove them back. The Boers are preparing for a final assault, with the idea that the capture of Mafeking will raise the drooping spirits of the Burghers."

LONDON, March 12.—There is no confirmation of the rumors of the raising of the siege of Mafeking, concerning which the gravest anxiety continues to be felt. The British reported casualties up to this date are as follows:

Killed, 2,418; wounded, 8,747; died of disease, 1,029; missing, 3,483; total, 15,677.

THE BOERS RESISTED IN STUBBORN FIGHT.

Driven From Their Center Position at Driefontein—Both Sides Suffered Severely.

DRIEFONTEIN, Orange Free State, March 12.—Broadwood's cavalry brigade, advancing on Bloemfontein, unexpectedly found the Boers in a strong position in the Driefontein kopjes. General Kelly-Kenny's division arriving, severe fighting ensued. The Boers resisted stubbornly, but were driven from their center position, leaving a number of dead and 40 prisoners. The British force is moving forward.

During the fighting, in which five regiments took part, with artillery, the Boers, though forced from their center position, clung tenaciously to the other kopjes, shelling the British freely with three guns and two Vickers-Maxims.

The British cavalry began to turn the Boer position, but night fell before the movement was completed. The Boers retired during the night.

A large number of Australians were engaged. The first Australian horse brigade, with the Scots Greys, advanced within 800 yards of the Boers under heavy fire.

The New South Wales mounted infantry joined in the pursuit of the Boers northward.

LONDON, March 12.—A dispatch to the war office from Lord Roberts, dated Driefontein, March 11, 7:45 a. m., contained the following:

"The enemy opposed us throughout yesterday's march, and from their intimate knowledge of the country gave us considerable trouble. Owing, however, to the admirable conduct of the troops the enemy were unable to prevent us reaching our destination. The brunt of the fighting fell on General Kelly-Kenny's divisions, two battalions of which, the Welsh and Essex, turned the Boers out of two strong positions at the point of the bayonet."

Another dispatch to the war office from Lord Roberts, dated Driefontein, March 11, 9:55 a. m., contained the following:

"I cannot get the precise number of casualties before I march, but will communicate it as soon as possible. The Boers suffered heavily, 103 of their dead being left on the ground. We captured about 20 prisoners."

"Among the killed are Captain Eastace, of the Buffs; Captain Lomax, of the Welsh regiment, and Mr. McCartie, a retired Indian civilian attached to Kitchener's horse."

"Among the wounded are: "Buffs—Colonel Jackson, leg, severe; Lieutenant R. Mudd. "Welsh regiment—Lieutenant Torkington, Pope, Wimmerley. "Essex regiment—Captain Broadwood. "Field artillery—Lieutenant Devenish. "Medical corps—Major White, Lieutenant Berne. "Australian artillery—Colonel Umphely, abdomen, dangerous."

PEACE PROPOSALS OF BOERS.

They Demand Independence and Amnesty For Colonial Rebels.

LONDON, March 12.—The Daily Mail has received the following dispatch from Pretoria, dated Saturday, March 10, and censored by the Boer government:

President Kruger and President Steyn have wired to Lord Salisbury peace proposals on condition that the independence of the two republics be restored and the rebel colonials amnestied.

Yesterday the foreign consuls were called into conference and were requested to invite the intervention of the powers they represented, in order to prevent further bloodshed.

Will They Destroy Johannesburg?

LONDON, March 12.—The Durban correspondent of The Daily News says: "On March 1 an order was issued from Pretoria to field cornets to make an immediate return of all the women and children in the Johannesburg district, with particulars as to whether each family would possess means of transport in case of sudden removal. The order created a sensation."

Kitchener After the Rebels.

CARNAVAL, Cape Colony, March 12.—General Kitchener has arrived at Victoria West to organize various columns for the purpose of suppressing the rebellion, which is spreading in this district. Minor fighting has occurred in several directions.

THIRTEEN AMERICANS KILLED.

Severe Fighting at Several Places in Luzon.

MANILA, March 12.—Thousands of organized insurgents were reported resisting Colonel Houston's battalion of the Nineteenth regiment at Antique, Province of Panay, which is the only province which the Americans do not occupy.

The Americans lost seven killed. A battalion of the Forty-fourth from Iloilo reinforced Houston's command.

One hundred and fifty Tagalogs, armed with rifles, have surrendered to Capiz and have been transferred to Luzon.

Postoffice Robbers Run Down.

ALTOONA, Pa., March 12.—A band of eight postoffice robbers were run to earth by Postoffice Inspectors Dickson and Gregory, after about a year's chase. Three are in jail here—George A. Lea, Edw. Kelley and John Fowler—while the others are confined in various Western Pennsylvania jails. Nine robberies are charged against them, among them Barnsboro, Spangler and Hastings, Cambria county; Natrona, Allegheny county, and California, Washington county.

Charges Against Councilmen.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., March 12.—The latest and greatest sensation in connection with the alleged councilmanic bribery deals occurred when High Constable William Taby appeared before Justice Francis M. Rowe and charged Councilmen E. O. Euern, Thomas Holl, William Zimmerman and ex-Councilman O. J. Reed and William Reppard of bribetaking; thousands of dollars figuring in the alleged deals.

Rear Admiral McCormick Retired.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Rear Admiral A. H. McCormick, who was assigned to duty as second in command of the Asiatic squadron, under Admiral Remy, has been placed on the retired list on his own application. The officer found that his health would not stand the strain of active sea service of the character required in the Philippines.

To Dine Dewey's Captains.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Captains of the American warships which took part in the battle of Manila bay are to be the guests of the Colonial club at a banquet next Thursday evening.

Captain Gelray Dead.

BOSTON, March 12.—Captain Joseph W. Gelray, U. S. A., retired, died, aged 3 years. His body will be taken to Arlington cemetery, Washington, for interment.

OLD RULE IN FORCE.

MOTORMEN WILL BE SUSPENDED

If Cars Chance to Meet Between Switches—News of East End and Vicinity.

"If two street cars meet between switches, one of the motormen will be suspended for three days," remarked Manager Louis W. Healy, of the Street Railway company Saturday afternoon. Some months ago this same rule was in force, but the motormen were so careful that Manager Healy decided to ignore it. This was done, but recently so many cars have met between switches that the rule has again been posted. Saturday afternoon the east bound local delayed traffic on the eastern part of the line. The west bound car was held in East End 12 minutes, and when it reached the Thompson pottery, it was met by an east bound car, and the west bound car was compelled to return to the power house switch before it could proceed on its trip.

A New Country Church.

Architect George Snowden has received the contract for making the plans of a Union chapel that is to be erected midway between Industry and Smith's Ferry. The church will be one story in height, have a seating capacity of 200, and will cost between $600 and $800. The church is to be erected during the spring. It will be named 'Olive Grove Chapel.'

Among the Sick.

Mrs. T. F. Anderson is ill at her home on Pennsylvania avenue, threatened with fever.

Mrs. George Snowden, of Ohio avenue, is able to be out after a severe attack of grip.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of Helena is ill with fever.

Their Grand Daughter Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Andrews, of Pennsylvania avenue, Saturday received word from their son, Mack Andrews, of the serious illness of his daughter Marcella, who is suffering with an attack of typhoid fever.

New Machine Arrives.

The new pressed brick machine for the East End brick company arrived at the lower freight station this morning. It will be placed in position at the plant within the next few days.

Bettridge In Charge.

During the absence of Fireman Terrence the East End fire station was in charge of George Bettridge of the central station.

Personal.

John Finley, of Hookstown, spent Saturday in East End visiting old friends. He was formerly in business in the suburb.

Clay Department Off.

Filling In Washouts.

The washouts on River avenue, along the street car track are being filled in.

INCREASING CAPACITY.

To be a Seven Mill Plant—Schools to Close Very Soon—News of Chester.

Manager Oliver Bergman, of the Chester Rolling Mill company, when seen in his office at the mill Saturday afternoon, gave out the following statement: "We intend to increase the capacity of the plant to seven mills. When the mill was originally planned it was the intention to have only six sets of rolls. Matters have changed lately, and during the week another mill will be ordered. We hope to do a larger business, and with this end in view we have had to make the change."

It Was Payday.

A large amount of money was distributed on the South Side Saturday. During the morning the mill company, and in the afternoon the laborers employed by Contractor McNally were given their February wages. All the store bills were paid during the evening.

Schools Will Close Soon.

It was officially announced in Chester Saturday that the Grant and Congo district schools would close their winter terms March 30. Many of the schools will be remodeled during the summer, or before the opening of the next term.

Ballasting the Road.

A gang of men working for the railroad company Saturday afternoon commenced to ballast the road east of the trestle over Cunningham's run. It will require about two weeks to ballast this part of the road.

Paid the Teachers.

Saturday afternoon Secretary Pugh, of the Grant district board of education, issued warrants for the payment of all the teachers. The warrants represented about $300.

To Settle an Estate.

Thomas R. Cunningham this morning left for Cumberland for the purpose of being appointed administrator of the estate of Elwood Babb, deceased. He will return this evening.

Monthly School Report.

Miss Blanche Derman, of the Washington, Grant district school, has completed her report for the month of February. It shows an enrollment of 23 girls and 25 boys.

Injured His Nose.

George McLane, of Chester, while packing a car of ware in the lower freight yards Saturday afternoon accidentally fell from the car and injured his nose and forehead.

Delayed Traffic.

The motor on car No 7 on the Chester street railway broke yesterday afternoon, delaying traffic for over an hour.

Brick Work Started.

This morning Contractor Ed. Cook put 15 bricklayers at work on the new Chester pottery.

New Livery Barn.

Garrett Mercer has finished the work of erecting a large livery barn on First avenue.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"The Christian."

The local lodge of Elks have been exceedingly fortunate this year in booking for their annual benefit "The Christian," a dramatization of Hall Caine's famous novel, and it is safe to say that East Liverpool people will never have a chance to witness a better show. The Elks were compelled to pay the company the highest price ever given a show to appear here, but they were determined to give their patrons an attraction that is seldom seen outside the large cities. The company is headed by Miss Effie Ellsler and is the only road company playing "The Christian." It was formed especially to play week stands in the large cities between New York and San Francisco, and has been greeted with packed houses everywhere. It is said there is but little difference between the work of Miss Ellsler and Miss Allen in the leading role of Glory Quayle, while the company supporting Miss Ellsler is just as good, if not better, than the one supporting Miss Allen. The company will appear at the Grand Thursday evening, April 19.

COUNCIL

Will Probably Hold a Lengthy Session Tomorrow Evening and Dispose of Some Business.

Council will hold a regular meeting tomorrow evening and it is expected the council will now start to finish up all the business on their hands in order to leave a clean slate for the incoming council, as there is only one more session before the annual meeting, which takes place Tuesday evening, April 10. The monthly reports of the city officers will be read and the committee appointed to place a value on the Pennsylvania avenue farm lands will make a report. The new police rules will come up and it is expected some action will be taken in regard to the plumbing inspector. There are several ordinances to be placed on their third reading and the electric light franchise will be disposed of.

To Arrive by Automobile.

New York, March 12.—The French liner Aquitaine, which came into port from Havre, brought three Frenchmen who say they intend to make the attempt to go to the Klondike by automobile.

AT THE FIRST M. E.

Dr. Darby Tells of the Good Work Done by the Society.

There was a great congregation present at the morning service. Dr. F. H. Darby, of Columbus, state superintendent of the Ohio Children's Home society, delivered a very interesting address, speaking of our duty to the little waifs of the nation, showing how quite a number of the great men of our land have been developed from among this class of little ones. Taking Moses as his starting point, the speaker demonstrated in this grandly historical character the points he was endeavoring to bring home to the minds and hearts and treasury of his hearers. He paid a glowing tribute to the Jewish race and character along the line of the superb manner in which that people care for ALL their little ones, and dwelt on the native shrewdness of the sister of Moses in securing for a nurse for the lad found in the bulrushes his own natural mother.

Doctor Darby spoke of the grand work accomplished by the society he represents, claiming it to be doing work in line with the homes where children are loved and cared for by loving fathers and mothers, and where bright and brainy boys are being made ready for positions of trust and honor in the nation.

The speaker is evidently not much in love with the poorhouse, the infirmary or even the average children's homes of the land. He would certainly have made an exception in favor of the Fairmount Children's Home, Alliance, had he, like the writer, accompanied our townsman, Hon. David Boyce, one of the trustees of the grand institution, on a tour of inspection, on more than one occasion, and have formed the intimate acquaintance of Superintendent Southworth; his noble wife, the matron; the teachers, assistants and general helpers; and last, but not least by any manner of means in point of interest, the happy little ones, well cared for from every standpoint, physical, mental, moral, educational and spiritual, he would certainly have been compelled to acknowledge that the little ones possessed advantages far superior to those in many, very many homes.

Will Weeden, of New York City, who some time since assisted Evangelist Schiverea in a series of meetings in the Fifth street rink, rendered two selections in superb voice, the latter selection replete with touching pathos and winning warm commendation from lovers of sacred song. Weeden's enunciation is all that can be desired, adding much to his power.

Rev. Boughton addressed a large audience very acceptably at the night service. Mr. Weeden delighted the congregation with a splendid rendition of "The Holy City."

IT WAS A CLOVEN FOOT

YOUNG HODGSON WENT FREE

A Relative of Ecker, the Saloonist, Tried a Nice Little Plan of Revenge, but the Bottom Dropped Out and the Boy Was Discharged From Custody.

Rev. B. H. Hodgson, righteously indignant at Ecker, the saloonist, doing an illegal and unlawful business, right in front of city hall, in selling intoxicants to the minor son of the reverend gentleman, entered suit against the law breaker and had him partly punished for his unrighteous and illegal acts.

The relatives of the said saloonist determined to have revenge, and on Saturday last had young Hodgson arrested on the charge of loitering about and entering a saloon, in defiance of an ordinance on the city statutes. Young Hodgson, not knowing that he was exempt from arrest, had pleaded guilty before Squire Rose, when the father of the boy appeared on the scene and informed the magistrate that his son had been a witness for the state of Ohio in giving his testimony before the court at Lisbon, and was therefore not liable to arrest or punishment on the charge trumped up. "You desire to make a defense, then?" said Rose.

"Most certainly I do," responded the father.

"You'd better secure an attorney," suggested the magistrate.

"My attorney is out of the city," said the reverend gentleman.

"Then you had better hunt up the law in the case," said Rose.

"I can do that in the course of half an hour's time," replied Hodgson, and he started out for that purpose. The reverend gentleman states that, ere he returned, the magistrate had taken measures which assured him that his prisoner was not liable and had discharged the young man from custody.

The advocates of the rum demon in this city are getting desperate and are resorting to desperate measures. It is high time that the Clark bill, or some better measure, shall be given to the people, in order that the accursed saloons shall be driven from our city. It is a burning shame upon the fair fame of East Liverpool that such dens of iniquity as the Ecker saloon, and kindred illegal resorts, are permitted to carry on their nefarious and unholy traffic, destroying mere bits of boys, body and soul. The fathers and mothers of the city should rise en masse, irrespective of party or clique, and by legal measures, force the saloons from our city.

And right here we emphasize the assertion that the legislators who enacted the law which will permit a little child to enter a saloon and purchase intoxicants, when that little child carries a permit from parent or guardian, are legislators in the service of the devil-contemptible tools, bought and sold, like so many cattle or hogs, by the liquor traffic. Pass the battle cry and watchword along the lines. "The un-American saloon must go."

A STEP BROKE.

Mrs. Sears Shay, of College Street, Met With an Accident Saturday Afternoon.

Mrs. Sears Shay met with a painful accident Saturday afternoon at her home on College street. The lady had stepped out on some back steps that led down from the kitchen when the top step broke and she fell to the ground, a distance of several feet. A physician was called, and it was found that she was not injured beyond having a severely sprained leg, which will lay her up for several days.

AGONY!

Pain so acute as to amount to positive agony is a part of rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sciatica, gout and other diseases for which TONGALINE is the specific remedy.

Too often morphine is given to quiet this pain and to save the nervous system from wreck. But morphine would never cure the disease. External application of lotions and liniments are equally ineffective for permanent cure.

In TONGALINE we have an anodyne more helpful and far safer than morphine, combined with eliminating ingredients which cure the disease permanently.

STEEL MILL.

An Effort Is Being Made to Locate One on the Lloyd Tract on the South Side.

The plan to organize a company to purchase the Lloyd tract on the South Side has not been declared off by any means and the work is being continued by interested parties. At present an effort is being made to land a steel mill. The company in question is now capitalized at $3,000,000 and employs 1,200 men with a monthly pay roll of about $50,000. The parties who have the matter in charge will give out no information in regard to the company, but say their chances for landing the concern are very good.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

APPLE ALLEY SEWER

Their Cellars Have Been Flooded Three Times This Winter Because It Clogged.

The Apple alley sewer was clogged up Saturday and as a result the cellars under several houses on Kossuth street were filled with water. The engineer's force worked until 4 o'clock Sunday morning before they succeeded in getting the sewer open, and then it was necessary to dig it up a short distance south of Kossuth street. It is the intention to put in a manhole at this point. This is the third time the sewer has stopped this winter and the cellars have been flooded. The residents are getting tired of it and are talking of asking council to pay for the damage they have been caused, as they think the trouble is due to the fact that slip from the potteries is run in the sewer. Engineer George says he does not know what causes the trouble, but that it will be thoroughly investigated and remedied, if possible. The sewer is an eight-inch one and the residents say the trouble must be stopped or they will file a bill for damages with council the next time their cellars are flooded. They think they have stood the annoyance until patience has ceased to be a virtue in their case.

Youngstown puddlers are getting $6 a ton, the highest in years. It was $4 during the panic and few at that.

Judge Smith says the politics of Wellsville is in a deplorable condition. So are the streets and several other things.

One of the speakers at the Young Men's Republican club' Wellsville, said he wanted the alleys of that burg made fit for swine to travel on. Scarcely complimentary to his fellow citizens, was he?

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

The Anti-Saloon league has become a power in the political field, and astute politicians are wide awake in their knowledge of the fact.

PLAIN JUSTICE.

Justice demands that the claim of Whan and Grim against Mayor Bough and his bondsmen shall be declared untenable.

Justice, backed by the taxpayers of East Liverpool, demands that the claim of Whan and Grim against this municipality shall be declared untenable.

CAN THIS BE TRUE?

One of the members of the jury before which the Whan and Grim claim was heard the other day declares that one of the two members who voted in favor of Whan and Grim said, after the jury agreed to disagree:

"My mind was fully made up in this case before any of the testimony was adduced."

KILL THE CURSE.

Watch yourselves, fathers and mothers of East Liverpool. Kill the curse! We have reference to the cigarette, a feeder for the saloon. One bright boy, just budding into manhood, said to the writer: "Yes, sir, I'll try to quit smoking 'em; but it will be a tough job. I've tackled it and been licked; but I'll try it again. Don't blame me too much, sir; put part of the blame on the men in town. I've bought 'em on Sunday from one of our city officials."

IT MUST GO.

Name it! The un-American saloon. And the Clark bill is one of the entering wedges which shall split the giant tree of the Liquor league to the very center of its foul heart. Pass the Clark bill, and many townships and wards will bar out the saloon. Defeat the Clark bill, and from its grave shall grow a harvest which shall ring the death knell of the political life of many an ambitious politician. Forbearance has ceased to be a virtue. This foul blot on the fair fame of our great and grand Republic must be wiped out of existence. The un-American saloon must go. The handwriting is on the wall. The right will prevail.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The congressional fight promises to be a battle royal. Taylor and Baker are already working like Trojans, each with a strong following, while Mahoning county promises to place a candidate in the field. Taylor's record at Washington has been a fine one, and this has added much to his chances. Baker's life record is a splendid one and he is backed by an element whose name is hustle, and they are leaving no stone unturned in the struggle for the nomination of their favorite. Only a short time since it seemed that Taylor would have a walkover for the berth; but now his warmest admirers admit that there will be a hot struggle for the coveted plum between himself and Baker. Time will develop the power and strength of the Mahoning man, in case such an one enters the arena. We await developments.

WATCH THE JURY!

Watch the action of the new jury on the Whan and Grim claim tomorrow. There are vital issues at stake in this matter, and a blunder may cause serious trouble in the future. Rumor has it that the majority of the existing council will vote to pay the claim at once, in case any jury in the land will vote in favor of the claimants, arguing that once paid, the defense might not carry matters up to a higher tribunal. If they try that dodge, they will count on a false helper, as there are men interested who will stand no nonsense or foolishness. There are wheels within wheels. Watch the result. No trickery or cunning will be permitted in this case, outside of square legal processes. The present council has already run the city into a snug bill of indebtedness by failing to listen to the wise counsel of the city solicitor.

The Masons will have charge of the services.

UNIFORM WAGE SCALE

The Committees Finished the Work Last Saturday.

THE SCALE WAS ADOPTED

Manufacturers and Operatives Are Very Well Pleased With the Result and the New List Goes Into Effect Shortly After May 1.

The uniform wage scale has been adopted, the manufacturers and Brotherhood committees having completed their labors in Pittsburgh Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The scale will become effective in 60 potteries and effect 10,000 potters.

The question of the uniform scale was first broached at the joint meeting of the United States Potters' association and the Brotherhood committees when it was decided to return to the operatives the 12½ per cent they had been reduced on account of the Wilson tariff bill. President A. S. Hughes has used his best endeavors for a uniform scale for the last seven years and a half and is highly pleased with the result. He says it will be a good thing for the entire potting trade and the list is best for all parties concerned, manufacturers and operatives alike. He says it will take several days to get the list ready for the printers, as there is still plenty of work to be done to thoroughly finish the matter. The list is a mammoth affair and President Hughes states that it would take several hours to explain it to anyone.

Colonel John N. Taylor when seen stated that he was well pleased with the result and the list was most satisfactory to all parties concerned. He said both committees were liberal and it was a case of give and take or they would have never succeeded in reaching an agreement. He said he expected there would be some objection on the part of some of the workingmen, but they had no reason for it, as their committee was most honorable and at all times worked for the interests of the operatives. He said the list would be operative in every pottery in the country and did not mean a general advance in wages. Colonel Taylor further said that the best of feeling prevailed among the committees and he thought the list was a splendid thing for the potting trade, as it meant that all the factories would pay the same wages and it would have the effect of doing away with many of the petty differences that arise in the different potteries.

The new scale covers all departments of the pottery trade, and while it includes reductions and advances in various individual items the scale is practically the wages heretofore paid. When the workers started they took the wages paid in all the potteries and averaged them, making that a basis for their operations. The potters claim that it is impossible to intelligently mention any particular wage as the base price, as it varies widely over the 3,000 articles included in the scale.

It comprises about 3,000 items, the potters being paid by piece work. Heretofore each pottery has had a different rate for different kinds of ware, and as new designs were being introduced each year the tangle has been increased instead of lessened. The variance in rates caused considerable friction among the workmen and much annoyance to the manufacturers. About two years ago a move was made to have the wages of all the potteries made uniform and the workingmen and a committee of the manufacturers have been busy ever since trying to arrive at something satisfactory. The new scale accomplishes what has been aimed at for years. It will go into effect the first full pay after the first day of May.

WILL WAIVE A HEARING

The Grim Case Will Go to Common Pleas Court.

CANNOT BE SETTLED HERE

Solicitor McGarry Has Decided to Let the Plaintiffs Take Judgment Here and Will Fight the Case Out in the Court of Common Pleas—He Has Good Grounds.

The case of D. Arthur Grim against the city and Mayor Bough is set for a rehearing in the court of Squire Rose tomorrow afternoon, but there won't be any hearing. The jurymen selected are G. H. Owen, George J. Phillips, W. L. Smith, Henry Joseph, H. A. McNicol and George Buxton.

Solicitor McGarry has decided to make no defense this time but to let the plaintiffs take judgment by default. In giving his reasons for the action the solicitor said: "The charge of the court to the last jury was such to my mind as to convince me that he and I didn't construe the law the same. Under the laws of the state of Ohio a justice of the peace can grant a new trial almost the same as the common pleas court and in event of a verdict against the law as the justice of the peace construes it a new trial might and could be granted, so that if a verdict was rendered against our version of the law and a new trial granted, then we would be right back where we started from. In case of a verdict either way neither party would be satisfied, and the case could not be determined here so it is just saving time and trouble by going immediately to the court of common pleas."

CENSUS ENUMERATORS.

It Will Take One For Every Ward and Candidates For the Job Will be Plenty.

There will be a census enumerator in each precinct. Already several people have made application to District Enumerator Hostetter for the position and received application blanks. The enumerators are required to pass examinations and file a bond. An exceedingly heavy penalty is attached for giving out any information in regard to the census. It is expected the list will be given out pretty soon, as the census bureau is now nearly ready for the count. The job will pay at least $3 per day and enumerators must be residents of the district in which they take the census. Four schedules cover the enumerators' inquiries—schedules requiring information about population, vital statistics, manufactures and agriculture.

THAT ASSESSMENT.

The Board of Education Will Probably Be Asked to Thoroughly Investigate.

The Board of Education at their next meeting will probably be asked to investigate some of the statements made at the last meeting by Dr. Williams in regard to the piano assessment in one of the rooms at the Central building. An informant of the doctor is preparing to ask the board to investigate the matter and says that his statements can be proved and for that reason they court an investigation and do not propose to let the matter rest as it stands now with the statement that there has not been a case where a child has been sent home or where names have been placed on the blackboards. The people think the present investigation has not been complete enough or some cases might have been found.

A Persistent Poet.

Although R. K. Munkittrick has an enviable reputation as a humorist, yet he is not the quickest man in the world to see a joke when it is played on himself. Mr. Gibson, one of the editors of Puck and also a practical joker, arranged for a special jest to be administered to Mr. Munkittrick.

He had provided a trick telephone which emitted a shower of flour when anybody spoke into it.

When Mr. Munkittrick had arrived. It was suddenly discovered that the paper had gone to press and that his copy was too late. There was only one chance, Mr. Gibson said, and that was to telephone to the printer and tell him to stop the presses until his matter should be set up and inserted. He asked Mr. Munkittrick to go to the phone at once.

Then the staff sat and held their sides, waiting for the explosion. Finally Mr. Gibson rushed to the telephone and found his friend deluged in flour, but still persistently calling "Hello!" through the phone.

He led him back and carefully explained the joke.

When he finished, Munkittrick calmly remarked:

"Still, I think we ought to let the printer know about the copy; don't you?"—Saturday Evening Post.

Spoke of What Constituted a Successful Church—Depended Largely Upon the Character of the Membership and the Church Officers—Illustrations.

Rev. Walter Mansell preached his farewell sermon at the Christian church last evening, taking as his subject: "What Constitutes a Successful Church."

He said his time here had been so short that he did not care to enter into any review. It seemed to have been all winter. If he left any message he wished it to be: "Be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of God," but he believed it would be better to speak a few words upon what constituted a successful church. The success of a church depended upon, first, the character of the members; second, the character of the officers. The purpose of the original church was to save men. The first requisite was that the membership should be thoroughly and soundly converted.

Just as no man built a steel structure of wood, nor used rotten logs as a foundation for a ten-story building, nor covered his house with paper, so the membership of a church should be consistently Christian. When he saw members indulging in the questionable things of the day that did not bear the stamp of the Christ life, it was apparent that they had never been thoroughly and soundly converted, though their names might be upon a dozen church rolls. They must be men of prayer, but prayer without work did not amount to much. One might pray all day for a child and leave the cistern open for it to fall into; might pray all week for crops, forgetting to sow the seed and starve to death. They must also be a paying membership. The cause of so little progress was so many dead heads. They must also have the Christ spirit. The trouble was so many wanted to be bosses or nothing. Christ bathed the disciples' feet. He taught that those who wished to be first must be willing to be last.

The character of the officers was equally important. They must be of good repute. Their secret life must be as clear as the noonday sun. They must love God's work. Men who do not lie, who do not cheat, who do not swear, and who do not visit back doors of saloons. They must be consecrated. A man who will bet a dollar that there will be no conversions during a revival is not a proper church officer.

In closing Mr. Mansell said: "I have never said that your board was opposed to me. Many of them are large hearted consecrated men. But some criticisms mixed with the expressions of sorrow have come to our ears since our resignation. It is said that we leave you because we were forced to a vote. When any one says that, we left because of that reason he either doesn't know what he is talking about or tells a falsehood. But we leave with kindly feeling for all. We will remember nothing but the sunshine and the smiles."

OUR ALPHA ADDITION,

Located south of Bank street extended, east of Bradshaw and north of Huston Addition, is taking with home-seekers. These are the cheapest lots in the city within same distance of the Diamond. They lie well and you can reach them by paved streets. It is wondered why we sell them on the terms. Some get the impression that they are inferior and we want to shove them off. Such is not the case. The lots are slightly sloping, but none to hurt; face to the south, and are really worth more money. We sell them on the terms because we are permanently engaged in the real estate business, and, owning this addition, choose to sell these lots in this way. Anyone can afford to buy one. The terms are

$5 DOWN AND $1 PER WEEK.

RQSS' MEADOWS,

is where you ought to build your country home. Roads to Lisbon, Wellsville, Cannon's Hill, Calcutta and East Liverpool cross there, making outlets to every direction. Some fine day call and we will drive you out if interested.

Within the past week we have deeded and sold five of these fourteen lots in the addition joining Oakland. The location and prices are doing the work. Lots 30x110. Price $225. Terms easy.

Our sales of real estate since January have amounted to more than $25,000. We have customers now for $50,000 worth. If you have any property to sell, place it with us.

REPUBLICAN FORCE INCREASED.

Another Militia Company Arrived at Frankfort and More Expected—Men Under Arrest at Lexington Denied Complicity in Goebel Murder.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 12.—A move on the part of Governor Beckham's followers toward the formation of a state guard under his administration, was in progress here, when City Clerk Ben Marshall circulated a paper and enlisted the requisite number of men who are to compose a new company. The guns for this company were provided by citizens here, most of them being either needle guns or Winchesters.

A report gained currency that Governor Taylor had given his soldiers orders to arrest Governor Beckham and other officers of the Democratic state government. On account of this report the men enlisted by Captain Marshall were assembled at the city hall, armed and sworn in as special police for the purpose of protecting the Democratic officers who were quartered at the Capitol hotel.

A large number of citizens also volunteered and were assigned to various posts in the vicinity of the hotel to offer a resistance in case the talk of arrests was attempted. Governor Taylor's soldiers, who were on guard at the state house, were reinforced by the arrival of the Barboursville company of 71 men, all of whom are fully armed and equipped. The Pineville and London companies were expected.

Governor Beckham appointed Colonel David R. Murray, of Clover Point, assistant adjutant general, with the rank of colonel, and he was sworn in.

The official announcement was made that this appointment was only temporary. It being understood that Colonel Murray accepted the appointment on account of the gravity of the present situation and with the understanding that he could resign when the conditions in the state became more quiet.

SOLDIERS AROUND JAIL.

Powers and Davis in Prison, at Lexington—Admit They Made Mistake in Disguising Themselves.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 12.—Impulsive action, under perhaps misguided impressions, came near precipitating bloodshed which would not have ended with the threatened riot at the depot when Secretary of State Powers and Captain Davis were arrested by the Lexington officials. Time was ripe, under misleading reports that mountain men were preparing to rescue the prisoners from jail, for desperate resistance on the part of the local officials, who are mostly Goebel men. Had an attempt been made to take the prisoners from jail the result is unpleasant to contemplate.

The adoption of such disguise by Davis and Powers in order to get out of Frankfort, they being dressed as soldiers, puts an ugly phase on the matter for the prisoners, in the opinion of some of their friends here, although they explain that they did so merely to get away from the local Goebel influences which they allege would work to their detriment in securing a fair trial. Both tacitly admit now that in this they may have made mistakes, as strongly urge their innocence of any connection with the murder of Goebel and insist that they have no fear whatever as to the outcome.

Sheriff Bosworth, of this county, says he will give the men as speedy an examining trial as they desire, but he does not think it proper to have their trial for several days yet, on account of the excitement.

Sheriff Suter, who came here from Frankfort, stated that he did not know when the men would be taken back to Frankfort. It will not be, however, till the examining trial is over here, which will simply decide that the local court has no jurisdiction, and the prisoners will then be taken to Frankfort.

All is quiet here and the soldiers still guard the jail. The armory is deserted, as all arms are in the hands of the local soldiery on duty at the jail.

Colonel Roger Williams, of the Second Kentucky regiment, was wired to return from Connersville, Ind., but he has not answered. Captain Longmire stated that in case Colonel Williams comes he will take no orders from him.

In this case there will be a conflict of military authority, and if Colonel Williams decides to take the armory he will have to do it by force. The prisoners, however, may be removed before that eventually occurs.

Reports from high sources in the Beckham ranks are to the effect that Governor Beckham may move the state capital here, but there is nothing more than rumor so far.

Powers and Davis were on a train Saturday night, leaving Frankfort, guarded by soldiers. At the depot here, officers got aboard, outnumbering the soldiers, and made the arrest. Powers was hurt, being hit on the head, possibly with a club.

Taylor Pardoned Arrested Men.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 12.—According to a statement made by Governor W. S. Taylor he has granted a pardon to each of the persons from whom warrants have been issued charging them with being accessories to the assassination of Governor Goebel, including Secretary of State Caleb Powers and ex-Secretary of State Charles Finley. In his statement, Governor Taylor recites the conditions under which he claims to have been elected, and charges the Democratic contestants for State offices with conspiracy to secure control of the government.

CURRENCY BILL WILL PASS.

Believed It Will Command Full Republican Vote in House—Forecast for the Week.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The week in the house promises to be rather dull. Today the contested election case of Wise vs. Young, from the Second Virginia district, which has been debated for two days, will be voted upon. Dr. Wise, the contestant, who is a Republican, was seated by a former congress on a contest and the indications are that he will be again seated.

Tomorrow the conference report upon the financial bill will be disposed of. There may be some lively debate upon the report, but it will command the full party strength on the Republican side and will be adopted. The remainder of the week will be devoted to appropriation bills, of which two have been reported to the house, the army and the District of Columbia bills.

THE RESIGNATION OF WHEELER.

Why the President Did Not Send It to War Department.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—It appears that General Wheeler did not tender his resignation last fall. It was dated Nov. 28, at a place called Paniqui, on the island of Luzon, and was not cabled, but came by the slow process of the mails. Moreover, it did not come directly to the war department, but went to the White House, where it has been reposing since its arrival in Washington. The war department officials have just learned of it.

The general's resignation was not accepted promptly by the president, out of consideration for the officer. Instead he was ordered to report to the war department at Washington. His resignation will be accepted here and the effect of this action will be to allow the officer his mileage and expenses to Washington.

QUAY RESOLUTION TO BE CONSIDERED

The Porto Rican Bill Also May Be Taken Up in Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The senate will continue to give attention to the Porto Rican bill and the Quay resolution this week, with a possibility that there may be a diversion in favor of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty and Senator Mason's Boer resolution.

Mr. Mason says it is his purpose to call up his resolution again and to get a vote upon it if possible. Senator Davis has expressed an intention to ask the senate to take up the treaty during the latter part of the week, but Senator Foraker, in charge of the Porto Rican bill, expresses confidence that Senator Davis will not bring the treaty forward at a time to embarrass the Porto Rican measure.

HURRYING TO A DEATHBED.

Rev. John McGinty Was Rushing East to Cheer a Dying Friend.

HAZLETON, Pa., March 12.—Rev. John McGinty, a Catholic priest of San Francisco, passed through here on a race across the continent to the bedside of a parishioner, who is critically ill at North Adams, Mass.

It is the desire of the aged and sick parishioner to see the priest before he died and Rev. McGinty was hurrying with all possible speed to North Adams, and expected to reach there in time to cheer the last moments of his friend.

Mrs. Herman De Vries Dead.

New York, March 12.—Mrs. Herman De Vries, wife of the opera singer, died in this city.

The wild white sheep is found nowhere in the world but in Alaska and few specimens for mounting whole have ever been obtained.

WARNING OF GEN. ROBERTS.

Informed the Boer Presidents He Would Not Stand Violation of Civilized Usages of War.

LONDON, March 12.—The war office received advices from Lord Roberts, dated Driefontein, Sunday, March 11, 9:45 a. m., containing the following:

"The following telegram has been addressed by me to their honors, the state presidents of the Orange Free State and the South African republic:

"Another instance having occurred of gross abuse of the white flag and of the signal of holding up hands in token of surrender, it is my duty to inform you that if such abuse occurs again I shall most reluctantly be compelled to order my troops to disregard the white flag entirely.

"The instance occurred on a kopje east of Driefontein farm, yesterday evening, and was witnessed by several of my own staff officers, as well as by myself, and resulted in the wounding of several of my officers and men.

"A large quantity of explosive bullets of three different kinds was found in Commandant Croje's laager, and this has been the case after every engagement with your honor's troops. Such breaches of the recognized usages of war and of the Geneva convention are a disgrace to any civilized power. A copy of this telegram has been sent to my government with the request that it may be communicated to all neutral powers."

PAYMASTER IN IRONS.

McNamara Caught Near Chicago and Taken to Altoona—Accused of Embezzlement.

PITTSBURGH, March 12.—J. D. McNamara, late assistant paymaster in the Pennsylvania railroad shops at Altoona, was brought to Pittsburg in irons from Chicago, and was later taken to Altoona, where he is wanted for the alleged embezzlement of Pennsylvania railroad checks to the amount of $2,563.76.

McNamara was arrested on train No. 9, on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad, just as the train was pulling into Chicago. The arrest was made by Captain Bradley, of the Fort Wayne police department, assisted by one of his lieutenants. They had been advised of McNamara's departure from Altoona, and they had him located several hours before the train reached Chicago.

Captain Bradley and his lieutenant brought McNamara to this city on Fort Wayne train No. 6. At Union station the prisoner was turned over to John Emigh, of the police department of the Pennsylvania railroad, and Francis S. Gaither, of Philadelphia, manager of the Assurance Company of North America.

FUNERAL OF PHELPS.

Dr. Timothy Dwight Delivered the Address—Yale Men Acted as Pallbearers.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 12.—Funeral services for the late Edward J. Phelps, ex-minister to England, were held in Battel Chapel. Dr. Timothy Dwight delivered the funeral address. The college choir sang two hymns, "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me."

The plain black coffin was carried into the chapel on the shoulders of eight seniors, members of the Wolf's Head fraternity, of which Professor Phelps was an honorary member.

Among the honorary pallbearers were: President Arthur T. Hadley, of Yale; Professor William Graham Sumner and Dean Francis Wyland.

The body was taken to Burlington, Vt., where the interment in the family plot will be made tomorrow.

WHITAKER AND CULTON MOVED.

Taken From Frankfort to the Jail at Louisville.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 12.—Harlan Whitaker and W. H. Culton, who were confined in jail here charged with complicity in the assassination of Goebel, were removed from the jail and taken in a hack to Shelbyville, where they were placed on a train and sent to Louisville under a heavy guard. It is understood they will be kept in the Louisville jail till the April term of the circuit court, when they will be returned here for trial.

Suspected of Counterfeiting.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., March 12.—Mrs. George Rossica is under arrest at Clarksburg for passing two-dollar silver notes raised to fives. It is believed she is the notorious Belle Freeland, who was arrested at the World's fair, at Chicago, for passing counterfeit money, and who a year later was sentenced to a term in the penitentiary in the state for the same offense.

BE A GOOD BOY! GOODBY!

How oft in my dreams I go back to the day
When I stood at our old wooden gate
And started to school in full battle array,
Well armed with a primer and slate,
And as the latch fell I thought myself free
And gloried, I fear, on the sly,
Till I heard a kind voice that whispered to me:
"Be a good boy! Goodbye!"

"Be a good boy! Goodbye!" It seems
They have followed me all these years;
They have given a form to my youthful dreams
And scattered my foolish fears;
They have staid my feet on many a brink,
Unseen by a blinded eye,
For just in time I would pause and think:
"Be a good boy! Goodbye!"

Oh, brother of mine, in the battle of life,
Just starting or nearing its close,
This motto aloft, in the midst of the strife,
Will conquer wherever it goes!
Mistakes you will make, for each of us errs,
But, brother, just honestly try
To accomplish your best. In whatever occurs
"Be a good boy! Goodbye!"
—John L. Shroy in Saturday Evening Post.

A PARTIALLY OBEYED ORDER

The Reporter Returned, but the Mule Was a Total Loss.

Harmon W. Brown of Ohio, who held a responsible place on the staff of General Rawlins during the civil war, tells the following story of the general's treatment of an intrusive reporter:

"One day before Vicksburg the correspondent of a certain paper went to General Rawlins for news.

"The general pondered a moment and took me one side.

"Take this young man," he said, "up to the top of those trenches within a stone's throw of the enemy. Take him up there and lose him. I don't care what happens. Understand?"

"I said I did, and we started through the lines. Both of us were mounted. I pointed out a crest overlooking the enemy and told him he could get a good view from that point.

"Ain't you coming with me?" he asked.

"No," I replied. "I know all I want to know."

"So he started alone. As soon as the top of his hat and the tips of his mule's ears showed above the crest there came a volley of musketry ten yards wide that cut the air like a big knife blade. The crown of his hat was sliced off as with shears. He managed to drop to the ground in safety, but the persevering mule was literally filled with lead. After the firing ceased the correspondent crawled to the spot where I was.

"Did you learn what you wanted to know?" I asked.

"Eh?" gasped the correspondent, wiping his face and looking at his hands to see whether they were bloody. "What I wanted to know? Oh, yes, of course. The enemy are over that ridge all right."

"When we returned to headquarters, General Rawlins saw us and hailed me. I went inside his tent.

"I thought I told you to lose that confounded reporter somewhere," he said testily.

"I did the best I could, sir," I answered. "He came back, but I have the honor to report the mule a total loss."—Saturday Evening Post.

A Navajo Superstition.

No Navajo Indian will ever make a campfire of wood from a tree that was struck by lightning or that might have been. If such a fire is made by an irreverent white man, the Indians will retire to a distance, where they cannot feel the heat or smell the smoke, and they will go to sleep in their blankets, fireless and supperless, rather than eat of food prepared on that kind of a fire. The Navajo believes that if he comes within the influence of the flame he will absorb some of the essence of the lightning which will thereafter be attracted to him and sooner or later will kill him. Up in the mountains more than half the great pines are scarred by lightning, but no wood from them is used. Almost any old Navajo can narrate instances where the neglect of this precaution has resulted disastrously, for men are sometimes killed by lightning in a region where thunderstorms are frequent, and it is but a step from the effect to the cause.

What Joseph Was.

The Sunday school teacher had been telling the class about Joseph, particularly with reference to his coat of many colors and how his father rewarded him for being a good boy, for Joseph, she said, told his father when ever he caught any of his brothers in the act of doing wrong.

"Can any little boy or girl tell me what Joseph was?" the teacher asked, hoping that some of them had caught the idea that he was Jacob's favorite.

"I know," one of the little girls said, holding up her hand.

"What was he?"

"A tattletale!" was the reply.—Baltimore News

THE SAMPLE FIEND

It Takes Lots of Material to Supply the Sampler's Demands.

Coming suddenly upon a salesman in a retail store who had a number of yard long lengths of new piques liberally sprinkled with those little price tags (the pins all stuck through the several thicknesses and bent down), one understood all at once the full import of the demands of the sample fiend. Marked off evenly like a checkerboard, with 17 price tags lengthwise and seven to the width, which made 119 to the yard, the salesman was going over the lot with a pencil, setting down the width and price on each.

At one store the one who is at the head of each stock attends to the preparing of the samples of his particular stock. Thus the pique samples would be cut by one, samples of swiss by another, of organdie by another, and so on. In the silk department one man, who is kept for the purpose, does it all. And it takes all his time.

For people from a distance who do their buying by mail this is of course a very good method. But the part to which all sane people take exception is the senseless sampling of those who wander aimlessly about, evidently gathering samples as a thoughtless child sometimes pulls twigs in passing bushes. The worst of it is we have to pay for this senseless woman's foolishness, it being often observable that the biggest samplers are the smallest buyers. One clerk says that he has actually seen thrown upon the sidewalk the samples given to a woman after showing her his whole stock, her purchase being ostensibly postponed because of her fear that the goods will not match something or other.

The time is past when these scraps went to feed the insatiate crazy quilt fiends.—Philadelphia Record.

His Resentment.

A Memphis young lady who is very fond of her sister's little child, a boy of 2 or 3 years, who is visiting her now, was trying yesterday to get him to let her "fix him up" to have his photograph taken. She got her curling tongs and was trying to coax him to let her curl his hair. But with true boyish disgust at the idea of having his hair treated like a girl's he refused to submit to the process. She insisted, however, and offered him every kind of bribe, but in every instance he refused to allow her to do what she wished, and finally, becoming tired of her attempt to get him to submit, he sat down, crossed his legs and looked up at her very seriously and said:

"Auntie, I tell you what I'll do. I won't take a dollar to let you curl my hair, but I'll give you a dollar if you just go away and let my hair alone."—Memphis Scimitar.

Wounded in Battle.

An army loses far more of its strength through its wounded than through its killed. In the first place there are four or five wounded to one killed, and in the second place the dead men give no trouble, while the wounded require an immense number of noncombatants to attend to them. A great many of the wounded return again to duty, their wounds being comparatively slight, but as a rule more than half of them take no more part in the war.—London Answers.

A Cat's Long Jump.

How far can a cat jump without hurting itself was partly exemplified in Brooklyn the other night. A pretty white cat ran up a tree to get away from a dog and at last crawled out on a small branch at least 60 feet above the ground. The branch was not much more than a twig, and the cat could not turn around. She sat up there in the swaying limb and meowed. At last the twig broke, and down came the cat. She alighted on the ground on her feet, looked around for a moment and then bounded away; which shows that a 60 foot drop does not hurt a Brooklyn cat, whatever it might do to cats of other places.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Stood the Test.

Heeler—Smith is top of the heap now. He can have anything he wants in this town if he only doesn't get spoiled.

Wheeler—He isn't spoiled yet, is he?

Heeler—No. He's a good fellow.

Wheeler—Well, if he isn't spoiled now he never will be. He was brought up by his grandparents.

UNION LABELS

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the R. C. N. P. & can show this card Ask for it when making your purchases.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeries. Following is the confectioners' and crackers' Label:

CIGARETTES AND RICE

Main Foods of the Filipinos Says an Interesting East Liverpool Letter.

Edward Fowler, 267 Third street, has received a most interesting letter from Fred Martin, Co. K, 47th regiment, stationed at Sorsogon, coast of Luzon, Philippines, dated Feb. 2. Martin says despite the intense heat he hasn't been sick a day. Sorsogon is in the south, about 300 miles from Manila. The 47th was the first American regiment to land there and it took the town without any resistance. About 700 Filipinos retreated to the mountains with four cannon but two of the 47th companies went out skirmishing and captured all. The transports were escorted by the Nashville and Helena. The transports could not get within five miles of the shore, the bay being shallow. The capture of Sorsogon marked the complete control of Southern Luzon by the Americans. The Sixth artillery is with the regiment. The town itself, built of bamboo, with coconut branches for roofing, struck Martin as funny. He says: "I thought there were no inhabitants until the band began to play and then they seemed to come up out of the ground. The people are very small and live mostly on cigarettes and rice. All are very friendly to the soldiers."

Other letters received from the same party contained a Ceylon penny and a very handsome belt.

Shingleton is well.

John Shingleton, a member of Co. A, 12th infantry, says he is now located at Gerona, P. I., and is on Major Adams' staff. The letter was received by his brother-in-law, Harry Merchant, and he sent a Japanese coin and some beads. He reports that he and his father, Isaac Shingleton, are both well.

Only Two Loads.

"At the close of the war," said a southern representative today, "a great many negroes in the south refused to leave their old homes. My father gathered his former slaves about him and told them they were free and must leave him. Some went and others remained. Among the latter was an old darky named Eph, who swore he would not leave, but would stay and take his chances. 'All right, Eph,' said my father. 'Just take four or five acres and go in on the three and four plan.'"

"An what am dat, massa, fo' de Lawd's sake?"

"Why, if you raise three loads of corn you must give me one and you keep two." So Uncle Eph went to work and raised a crop. At harvest time my father rode over the farm and noticed that Eph had cut his corn. Seeing the old fellow, he rode up and asked him why he didn't do as he had agreed about dividing the corn.

"Well, massa, yob said if I raised free loads of corn I wuz to gib yob one an take two loads myself, an I done only raised two loads."--Washington Times.

Jerrold's Wit.

The English have been accused for so long of dullness in their humor that several stories related of the eminent wit Douglas Jerrold may not be out of place as showing that the charge is sometimes untrue. It appears that at a dinner one gentleman who had been eating a dish of sheep's head with great gusto exclaimed as he laid down his knife and fork, "Sheep's head forever, say I!" "There's egotism," said Jerrold.

Sometimes, through a joke, Jerrold conveyed good advice or a word of warning. He was enjoying a drive one day with a jovial spendthrift behind a pair of grays. "Well, what do you think of my grays?" asked his impecunious friend. "To tell you the truth," replied Jerrold, "I was thinking more of your duns."

The Price of Admission.

Mrs. Smyth (looking up from her paper) What does it mean in the Washington news when it speaks of "the lower house?"

Mr. Smyth--That means the house of representatives. The senate is higher.

Mrs. Smyth--How is it higher? Do you mean that it costs more to get there?--Philadelphia Record.

Wanted to Sit in Her Own Lap.

The little 3-year-old daughter of one of the leading ministers in Little Rock resents too great familiarity. One evening, though she seemed a little unwilling, a young man, who was calling, took her upon his lap, whereupon she said, with great gravity:

"I want to sit in my own lap."

It is needless to add that the young man immediately put her down.

Alert to Prevent It.

"The great danger," said the grave citizen, "is that we will drift into a paternal form of government."

"Yes," answered Mr. Meekton, with a sigh. "Henriette seems worried about that every time I speak to the children."--Washington Star.
